

Mediator Tells of Deadlock in Strike

Rift Over Working Conditions

Washington — (AP) — Federal mediators said today union management and union officials are in an absolute deadlock on a key issue in the steel strike.

This is the industry's insistence on the right to change working conditions it considers wasteful or inefficient. David J. McDonald, United Steelworkers general president and top negotiator for his side, has served notice that it would be accepted only "over my dead body."

Many observers view it as the major issue in the costly, nationwide strike now in its 14th day.

"Both sides have adamantly told us there is no present hope of a compromise on that issue," a spokesman for the federal mediation and conciliation service told a reporter.

Company negotiators have contended that only by gaining more efficiency through changing the work rules can the companies afford to grant any wage increases and other benefits asked by the union without adding to inflation.

Union Stands Firm

But the union contends rules changes would eliminate worker gains made over the years. The union challenges the companies' argument that the rules have resulted in unnecessary work assignments.

The mediator spokesman said the negotiations at this stage are more an effort to clarify various issues than really to bargain. He added that he could not predict when the situation would be reversed.

The negotiations stood in recess at least until tomorrow as both sides awaited the supreme court's decision on whether to sustain a Taft-Hartley law injunction ordering the 500,000 striking Steelworkers back to their jobs for 80 days. The court gave no hint as to when it would announce its ruling.

Proposes Tuition Increase at State Colleges, University

Madison — (AP) — State Sen. Kirby Hendee, Milwaukee Republican, said Wednesday tuition at Wisconsin's tax-supported colleges and universities should be increased to help pay higher salaries to faculty members.

Hendee made the statement at a meeting of the joint finance committee, which heard arguments on a proposed $1,915,000 second year budget increase recommended by Gov. Gaylord Nelson. Most of the money would go for higher faculty pay.

A spokesman for the university said continuing the 20 per cent level of support would require a $10 a year tuition boost if the $1,915,000 is okayed.

The legislature in 1957 increased tuition to $100 a semester for residents and $275 for out-of-state students.

Today's Paper Carries Stories On Government

How much do you know about your city government? How is it run? Where and how is the money you contribute each year in taxes spent? Where can you find out more about your local government?

The answer, of course, is your daily newspaper. Only the newspaper is designed and equipped to report, interpret and present useful information in depth or how and why your local governing bodies operate the way they do.

Today's Post-Crescent carries stories on many council and county board activities in the Fox Cities area.

Accused of Bribe Offer

Attempt Made to Influence Press

Mineola, N. Y. — (AP) — A Broadway publicist and cafe society figure was arrested today on charges of employing illegal tactics in an effort to buy favorable newspaper treatment of a union official facing trial on extortion charges.

Three other men, charged with offering a $20,000 bribe to a detective in the union official's case, are sought.

Arrested was Robin (Curly) Harris, 47, of Manhattan. Nassau county detectives seized him at his home last night and

Favors Change At Hospitals

Gov. Nelson Wants To Relax Policies On Admission

Madison — (AP) — Gov. Gaylord Nelson endorsed today a report which calls for legislation to relax admission policies at University hospitals in Madison. About 200 of its 700 beds are empty most of the time.

The state department of administration report said a falling patient load is incompatible with plans for boosting the size of medical school classes. It also results in a higher per patient cost, it said.

Cost of the plan recommended for consideration in the fall legislative session is $210,000. About half would be earmarked for remodeling.

Charges to Vets

One proposed change would revise the formula for charging to veterans. Under a 1957 law veterans are required to pay half the cost of their hospitalization, with the state paying the remainder. The cost of veterans prior to this was $5.70 a day.

The change would require the veteran to pay half the cost of the previous year's average for all patients.

The department proposed repealing the county admission quota system under which counties are now allowed two admissions per 1,000 population, with the state and county sharing the cost. Counties pay the entire cost of additional patients.

This change, the report said, would save counties about $258,000 a year and result in county-state 50-50 cost sharing of all county patients. The department also recommended admission of university students and their dependents. Admission of private patients now is by referral of a physician only.

Bear Damage Veto Sustained

Madison — (AP) — The Wisconsin assembly upheld today Gov. Gaylord Nelson's veto of a 1959 bill to permit farm-area residents to kill bear damaging crops.

The vote was 42-48. Overriding requires a two-thirds margin.

When Nelson vetoed the bill, which originated in the assembly, he explained he did so because he feared that allowing bear to be killed out of season might lead to other demands for killing other wild animals damaging property.

Wisconsin had a special bear season this fall and the conservation department reported 237 animals were killed.

Moser Assistant Minority Leader of Wisconsin Senate

Madison — (AP) — Sen. William Moser, Milwaukee Democrat, today replaced Sen. Horace Wilkie, Madison, as assistant minority floorleader of the senate.

Wilkie suffered a heart attack last summer and is expected to be hospitalized another two weeks. Moser is a first-term legislator.

Floorleaders of both parties discussed the possibility of dispensing with 65 bills remaining from the summer session.

Sen. Henry Maier, Milwaukee Democrat, suggested the Republican majority reach some decision on what it wants to do or "we'll face the probability of acting on all the bills."

Fox Cities May Escape Nation's Wintry Blast

Stinging Snow Swats North With 8 Inches At Wausau; 4 Die

Blustery north winds carried heavy snow and stinging cold and brought deaths across northern sections of the nation today. The Fox Cities are not expected, however, to be hit with the wintry weather.

Occasional light rain turning to snow tonight and diminishing to flurries is forecast for the Fox Cities by the Green Bay weather bureau.

Four deaths from weather were reported — one from exposure in Montana, two traffic fatalities in Wisconsin and another in Colorado.

Heavy Snow

Wausau received a heavy snow warning at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday. Eight inches of sopping wet snow fell and stayed on the ground. Had snow in the Fox Cities remained it would have amounted to 24 to 3 inches.

Snow again was falling this morning in upper Michigan and extreme northern Wisconsin.

In an area extending south to La Crosse, northeast to Eau Claire, Wausau and into the upper peninsula, roads are slippery and driving conditions hazardous, the state traffic patrol said.

Sanding Crews Out

Sanding crews were called out in several counties. Steep hills on Highway 51 between Merrill and Wausau were reported as trouble spots.

Reports of cars skidding off highways and trucks and trailers stalled don't hills in Oneida, Vilas, Lincoln, Langlade and Marathon counties were received by highway patrols.

Persons returning from parts of northern Oconto county said today motorists used chains and shovels to dig themselves out to get into travelways.

Deer hunters welcome the layers of white for better tracking and dragging when the season opens Nov. 14 in northern Wisconsin.

Killing in Tavern

Musician Seized as Bartender's Slayer

Milwaukee — (AP) — A deaf mute bartender, who attempted to ward off his slayer with a mop, was shot to death Wednesday by a former Dixieland musician, police said.

Dead was Sam "Tudy" Quarino, Jr., 50, who operated a tavern near the downtown section.

"I'm sorry I shot him, but I'm not sorry he's dead," said Hugh E. Eddie Burleton, 45, who was charged with first-degree murder. "I guess I'll get my clarinet out of hock when I go to the can," he added. "I'll have plenty of time now."

Burleton was angered by Quarino's attention to the horn player's estranged wife, Shirley, 39, who witnessed the shooting. The Burletons had been separated two years.

Police said that Burleton, after pumping six pistol shots into Quarino, sat on the floor and looked at the victim until police arrived.

Detective Inspector Rudolph Glaser said that Burleton bought the murder weapon, a .32 caliber automatic, earlier in the day after leaving his job as a laundry truck driver, and set out to find his wife. He learned she was at Quarino's bar.

Glaser said that when Burleton entered, Quarino was mopping the floor and Mrs. Burleton was playing cards with a patron.

Burleton shoved the patron out of the way, the inspector said, and opened fire on Quarino who tried to defend himself with a mop.

Hugh Burleton, 45, a former musician, is in police custody for the fatal shooting of Sam Quarino, 45-year-old Milwaukee tavern-keeper, who he thought was paying attention to his estranged wife. Burleton is charged with first degree murder.

No, These are Not Abominable snowmen from Tibet. They are members of the Wausau High school football squad at a practice session Wednesday afternoon. Coach Win Brockmeyer's smile turned to a frown today after more snow fell and the final game with Superior Central had to be cancelled.

Black Creek Boy Killed

Robert Nachtwey, 9, One of Four State Traffic Fatalities

Black Creek — Robert J. Nachtwey, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Nachtwey, route 2, Black Creek, was struck and killed by a car on Highway 47 near his home a half mile south of Black Creek about 4 p. m. Wednesday.

Driver of the car was Nicholas J. Fox, 55, of 917 W. Oklahoma street, Appleton.

Nachtwey was one of four persons killed in Wisconsin highway accidents increasing the state's road toll to 687

Briton Awarded Nobel Peace Prize

Oslo, Norway — (AP) — The Nobel peace prize was awarded today to a British politician and writer, Philip Noel-Baker.

The prize this year is worth $42,650. The money comes from the will of Alfred Nobel, the inventor of dynamite.

The peace prize committee decided to award the 1959 prize to Noel-Baker because of his work for peace and disarmament throughout his career.

Pentagon Advanced Research Head Named

Washington — (AP) — Charles Louis Critchfield, a physicist who directs the research program of a big aircraft company, is the new head of the Pentagon's advanced research projects agency.

Critchfield, 49, will take over the ARPA job Nov. 16 from Roy W. Johnson, a former General Electric company executive who announced his resignation a month ago.

Since 1955, Critchfield has been director of scientific research for the Convair division of General Dynamics corporation.

At one time he was on the faculty of the University of Minnesota. From 1943 to 1946 he was a mathematical physicist at the important atomic bomb laboratories at Los Alamos, N. M.

Nehru Opposed to Pakistan Alliance

Declares India's Army Can Safeguard Nation's Borders

BY HENRY S. BRADSHAW

New Delhi — (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru today rejected suggestions of a defense alliance with Pakistan and said the Indian army can defend the nation's borders against communist China "adequately and efficiently" if it has to.

Nehru told his monthly news conference that his firm policy is still to seek peaceful settlement of the border dispute with Peiping "just as it also is our firm policy to fight if necessary."

He expressed confidence the dispute would not develop into war between the two countries. If it does, Nehru warned, "it would not remain an isolated, limited thing. The rest of the world would be drawn in."

Quizzed at Meeting

Nehru declared, however, that India has no intention of seeking outside aid or alliances. "We are rather allergic to military alliances anywhere, in any way," he added.

The prime minister's comments followed a private meeting yesterday at which members of his congress party in parliament angrily questioned him about the border situation. A spokesman for the group, said it "expressed strong and grave concern on the border situation and conveyed the feeling of the people and their fear that India has been weak."

India replied yesterday to a red China note denying responsibility for the Oct. 21 clash in Ladakh province of Kashmir, in which nine Indian policemen were killed and 10 captured by Chinese troops.

Asked if he will discuss the border situation with President Eisenhower during the latter's visit in December, Nehru said he presumed it would come up in the course of their conversations. He added that he is happy the president included India in his 9-nation tour and looks forward to his coming.

It came scant hours after O'Rourke, 30, had again denied he ever received any help or knew of any help being given contestants on "Tic Tac Dough."

His denial was prompted by release of testimony by Howard Felsner, producer of the program.

Big Winner on 'Tic-Tac-Dough' Leaves Army

FL. SILL, Okla. — (AP) — An army officer who won big money on the television quiz show "Tic-Tac-Dough" — and has steadfastly denied receiving any help — resigned his commission yesterday.

Officers at Ft. Sill said O'Rourke, who won more than $106,000 resigned with this official statement:

"My reason for resigning is that if I were called before the congressional committee investigating the television shows, I would prefer to appear as a civilian or as an officer of the army whose resignation has been submitted."

The resignation was quickly accepted here and approved by the department of the army.

It came scant hours after O'Rourke, 30, had again denied he ever received any help or knew of any help being given contestants on "Tic Tac Dough."

His denial was prompted by release of testimony by Howard Felsner, producer of the program.

Say They Didn't Rig Quiz Shows

Washington — (AP) — A former executive of Revlon, Inc., testified today that rigging of the Revlon-sponsored "$64,000" television quiz shows was an act of desperation to rescue the programs from plummeting viewer ratings.

At the same time, George Abrams indicated that Martin Revlon, former executive vice president of Revlon, may not have been aware that the destiny of contestants was decided in off-stage meetings between producers and the sponsor.

Abrams was called as a witness before the house legislative oversight committee in an effort to reconcile earlier conflicting statements made by him, Martin Revlon and the shows' producers.

The investigators asked the nation's two largest television networks today for a report on what is being done to keep decent and fraud off the TV screen.

To get the answer, the

house legislative oversight subcommittee summoned Robert Kintner, president of the National Broadcasting company, and Dr. Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Abrams testified under oath that two cases of alleged quiz show fixing were brought to the attention of CBS, "and nothing happened."

Abrams first alluded to "a whitewash," but quickly added: "Maybe that's a severe term. They were dragging their feet."

$15,000 For Contestant

Abrams testified the first protest reported to CBS came in March, 1958, from Arthur J. Cohn, Jr., a contestant on "Challenge," that his opponent had been given a question in a warmup session that was later "used on the air."

He said the second incident was the story told the next fall by the Tennessee minister, the Rev. Charles E. (Stoney) Jackson, that he had been coached on actual questions and answers.

Before questioning Kintner and Stanton, however, the subcommittee arranged to inquire a bit further into allegations of undercover payments to quiz show officials in exchange for some commercial plugs.

Subcommittee Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark.) scheduled testimony from Joseph Gates, an early director of the ill-fated "$64,000 Question" quiz program, and Max Levine, press agent for

Panama's President Deplores Violence

BY LUIS NOLI

Panama — (AP) — President Ernesto de la Guardia, Jr., last night "condemned and disapproved" violent demonstrations by Panamanian nationalists against U. S. control of the Canal Zone.

De la Guardia told the nation in a broadcast that the attacks Monday on the U. S. embassy and on U. S. army troops and Canal Zone police at the border of the zone "were not fair to the authorities of a country which has with us, a vital and mutual interest in the canal."

Feeling against the United States still is high. Demonstrators stoned the offices of the American-owned light and power company in the capital yesterday and set fire to an automobile.

Shortly before De la Guardia went on the radio, Panama charged in a diplomatic note that the U. S. troops and police provoked the anti-U. S. violence by their rough handling of nationalists trying to parade the Panamanian flag through the Canal Zone.

The Panama government was replying to a Washington protest against the attack on

2 Assassins Murder New York Gambler

New York — (AP) — Two assassins pumped bullets into gambler Frank (Frankie Shots) Abbate as he lay wounded on a Brooklyn barroom floor last night.

They looked closely at their victim to make sure he was down to stay. Then they walked out of the tavern.

Abbate, 59, died a short time later in a hospital without regaining consciousness.

Those Fraudulent Quiz Programs

Philip Cortney, president of Coty, Inc., has made two suggestions for cleaning up the tangled state of affairs of the TV networks resulting from the fraudulent quiz programs.

Coty, Inc., is a manufacturer of cosmetics and it may be recalled that one of the sponsors of a very important TV quiz program also was a cosmetics firm. The New York district attorney has said he was unable to find anyone who has defrauded by these programs but it must be quite apparent to people like Cortney that it was the competitors of the sponsors who suffered the most. One of Cortney's proposals is that the sponsors of the rigged quiz shows donate to charity the money they made as a result of the programs.

We can understand that is a rather unpopular proposal among the sponsors but if the sponsors are really interested in cleaning up things this surely would be an effective means. It would be understood and accepted more widely than the mere removal of big money shows from the air.

Cortney also suggested that control of programs be left to the networks and that the advertisers have no say in programming. This change probably would be for the good of the networks, the sponsors and the public. The sponsor would have his advertising message read in connection with a specific program and at a time when he thought the listening audience was large and in a mood to receive his message. He would not take any responsibility for the writing, arranging or presenting of the show. That would be the work of the network and presumably would be in the hands of experts capable of winning the maximum audience at the hour it is presented.

This puts the TV advertiser on the same basis as the newspaper and magazine advertiser.

There are those who contend large advertisers influence the news contents of newspapers and magazines. The fact is that they do have an influence but so do the readers, most of whom are non-advertisers. As a matter of fact anyone may have some influence upon the editing of a newspaper or magazine. They may also exert some influence on TV and radio programming but that is a far cry from taking over the make-up of a paper or from writing a TV script.

It would be very difficult to show that any one advertiser or any group of advertisers had either the desire or the ability to influence the content of a newspaper. Attempts to prove this contention usually are featured by the citation of isolated instances which might well be considered exceptions to the rule. On the other hand, it is not difficult to show many cases in which editors are openly and frankly antagonistic to many of the business interests and the large advertisers who patronize their newspapers. Yet these newspapers are successful. They continue to attract advertisers and offer indisputable proof of the fact that what the advertiser wants is circulation and readership. Those things he will buy regardless of what he thinks of the editor or the editor's opinion.

An interesting example of the independence on the part of newspapers came to light in connection with Cortney's statement. When Cortney's talk was presented to the Sales Executives club of New York, both Cortney and Philip J. Kelly, president of the club, charged that pressure had been brought to cancel Cortney's talk. The pressure had come, it was claimed, from advertisers and from advertising agencies. It would be difficult to think of more formidable pressure groups for an advertising club or a newspaper publisher to resist than advertisers and advertising agencies, yet the speech was presented at the club as scheduled, it was reported and published in all of the New York newspapers indicating once again that advertisers and advertising agencies seldom attempt to exert pressure upon the newspapers and when they do they are more often than not unsuccessful.

They think the proposed policy of having the networks handle their own programming would be much preferred over the present arrangement under which advertising agencies often write and present the shows for their clients independently of the network. In such instances the networks are merely hired services to carry the programs to the country. Thus the responsibility is divided and it has been amply proved, we are sure, that they cannot afford to avoid responsibility in this area.

Tax Committee Acted Wisely

The Citizens Advisory Committee on Tax Policy chose wisely last week when it refrained from suggesting to the legislature stopgap revenue measures to resolve the budget crisis that faces it, and kept its attention on the task of devising long-range revision of the Wisconsin state and local government fiscal structure.

It was especially prudent, it seems to us, for the group to avoid an explicit recommendation for a rate structure revision of the state income tax as a "temporary" budget balancing expedient.

In practical political terms such a revision, if it is achieved by Gov. Nelson, won't be temporary as he knows full well. It will become permanent and also will reduce the pressure — to put it baldly — for the achievement of long range reforms.

The fact that the citizens' committee report is not likely, as a consequence, to come before the legislature before 1961 is unfortunate, as we have suggested earlier, but that is not its responsibility.

Gov. Nelson could have gotten this machinery going earlier. Even now, if he was disposed to do so, he could ask the legislature to recess until that final recommendation on tax revision is available, which may be by spring of 1960, according to the committee's most recent statements.

But if a choice has to be made, it should be in favor of committee concentration on long range goals, and the studies in depth that must precede recommendations for the attainment of those goals.

The committee as such is no more reliable guide for sound legislative policy on temporary tax revenue measures this fall than would be the chamber of commerce or the CIO or Gov. Nelson or the editorial staff of this newspaper. For it to involve itself in such purely pragmatic matters would be to expose itself to partisan causes and thus to dilute public understanding and support for its ultimate target.

We like the metaphorical expression in its first progress report:

"Our maximum usefulness will be realized only if we plow a straight furrow."

'We Happy Few' Turn to Sour Grapes

Memoirs now being published by the big figures of the Second World War suggest it was miraculous that we won the war at all since so many appalling mistakes were made. Most of the complaints are coming from British officers who concede that the Germans and Japanese just made more and bigger blunders. And there just may be a hint of dismay that Rule! Britannia! no longer is heard with awe around the world.

Lord Alanbrooke, chief of the Imperial General Staff during the war, has published the latest book which takes somewhat the same attitude as that of Field Marshal Sir Bernard Montgomery that everyone else gumbled up the works. Sir Winston Churchill is pictured as lacking in width and depth; Gen. George Marshall "has not even now grasped the true aspects of the Burma campaign," and was guilty, along with Fleet Admirals Ernest King and William Leahy, and Gen. H. H. Arnold of "sharp practices." Gen. Chiang Kai-shek was "a shrewd but small man" and his wife's presence at strategic discussions was appalling. Stalin seemed to have the military mind but made the mistake of going along with some of President Roosevelt's foolish ideas. Gen. MacArthur alone gets much praise but then Lord Alanbrooke didn't have much to do with the campaign in the Pacific.

However, Gen. Eisenhower bears the brunt of this book's attack. He played golf even then. The Battle of the Bulge was his fault. He was "no real director of thought, plans, energy, direction . . . no real commander." It took other generals to persuade him "to get on with the war."

Obviously the United States should have taken more seriously Churchill's plea before Pearl Harbor to give the British the tools and they would do the job. But Lord Alanbrooke does note that Eisenhower was "a coordinator, a good mixer, a champion of inter-Allied cooperation." It begins to appear that he must have been a virtual miracle worker to get all the divergent opinions and violent oppositions of these individualists to merge at all.

1-Man Board Newest Wrinkle In Bureaucracy

From The Florida Times-Union

Washington, the city that can count the invention of many administrative techniques among its accomplishments, has scored again. It has devised something called a "1-man fact-finding board." The first man to comprise such a board was Sec. of Labor Mitchell, appointed to the board by President Eisenhower.

Exactly what a 1-man board is has not been specified. It seems to be similar to a committee of one, except it is a board instead of a committee.

The advantage of appointing a 1-man board is that it eliminates differences of opinion. A minority report has yet to come out of a 1-man board but even that should be possible in Washington.

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Last evening the common council of the City of Menasha defeated the proposed ordinance forbidding the sale of malt beverages to people under the age of 21.

Let's take a look at some of the reasons that were given.

1. I haven't had enough time to think about a matter of such importance.

Any person who cannot make up his mind about an issue that has been in the Twin Cities for about a year will have a real tough time rendering a decision on any matter of importance that may come up in city government. If the passing of an ordinance in Neenah did not stimulate thought as to his reaction if the same proposal were presented in Menasha, then I for one do not feel the person is as concerned about city government as his election may seem to indicate.

2. We might be taking away something the teen-agers like. To me this is one of the weakest reasons given. If your child likes the taste of iodine and insists on drinking it, are you going to permit it to continue or will you take it away from him for his own benefit.

3. We do not want to take the license away from the

Has Suggestion For Man Who Sells to Drunks

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Frequently, we see the names of drunken drivers published. But where are the names of the one who furnished the drinks? Surely at this point he is more qualified to know that the drinker has passed the safety line than the culprit.

Are the dispensers so angelic their actions must never be questioned? If they do not know the customer drives a car, they might ask him and thereby even save a life if they acted upon it in time.

In this car crashing age all these things are very important. Unnecessary accidents cry to high heaven in our so-called Christian society.

Opposition to Loyalty Oath Is Puzzling

Editor, Post-Crescent:

The loyalty oath is fiercely opposed and denounced at many American universities. Educators and students charge that it is distasteful and insulting. Their stand is puzzling.

Why should any loyal citizen object to affirming his allegiance to the United States?

The House un-American activities committee continues to amass shocking evidence of Communist sabotage against our country. America stands today in greater need of dedicated patriots than ever before.

The greatest danger to America is neither inflation nor the national debt. It is international communism.

Looking Backward

St. Joseph Fair Grand Success

79 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of Nov. 6, 1880.

The fair held in the auditorium of the new St. Joseph schoolhouse was in all respects a grand success, socially as well as financially.

On Monday evening there was a larger attendance than usual, the large hall literally being packed. There was considerable interest in the voting—the mass of people contributing their dimes, quarters and dollars to the Bouquet side of the question, offset by George Gerry's and John Brill's bar!

It finally resulted in a $30 majority for Guenther. The society realized $435.90 from this one source alone.

Then followed a scene of social promenading to the inspiring music of the Germania band, until a late hour.

We are informed that the receipts will reach some $2,000.

25 YEARS AGO

Thursday, Nov. 1, 1934

Thomas Marling was elected secretary of Appleton High school sophomore class at a special election.

Word was received from Hollywood by Al Sinding, manager of Warner's Appleton theatre, that Mrs. William E. Buchanan, Appleton, was named the winner of a 1934 model automobile in a contest in which the entrants selected movie stars to play the various roles for the screening of the novel, "Anthony Adverse."

Mrs. H. Karl Schuetter was chairman of a bridge tea that was to be given by the Service circle of Appleton King's Daughter. Her committee included the Misses Ruth Trever, Martha Ray, Anita Cast, Gertrude Plank, Helen Werner and Mary Schmidt.

George S. Nolting was elected president of the Appleton Kiwanis club. He succeeded Paul V. Cary, Sr.

10 YEARS AGO

Thursday, Nov. 3, 1949

George E. Peotter, Appleton, who served as Appleton assessor for 17 years, was elected to the Appleton water commission by the common council.

E. A. Dettman and Frans G. Larson were attending the sixty-second annual meeting of the American In-

State Building Plans Really are a Mess

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — Joe Nussbaum was gentle enough when he told the legislative finance committee the other day what a mess the state building commission and related functions have become during the last decade.

But his remarks didn't require much imagination for translation.

The least attentive capitol correspondent and the greenest member of the legislature has suspected that something has been wrong, shamefully wrong, when a building that was voted four to five or even more years ago is not yet on the drafting boards.

Nussbaum, without giving details or mentioning names, said there was one institution that was authorized seven years ago, but which is not yet even in the preliminary planning stages.

There are many other examples, some of them so notorious that capitol officials involved are privately worried that the legislature — in its present frustration over the state budget deficit — may change its mind, recapture the appropriations for some of the buildings, and use the funds for other purposes.

THE RESPONSIBILITY

One of the real difficulties in the appraisal of governmental operations is that of pinning responsibility for defaults.

The difficulty is apparent in this situation.

The standard excuse is that which is the ever reliable stand-by of other governmental officers:

"Inadequate personnel."

Yet the skeptical sideler cannot fail to note that the more aggressive and persistent department heads get their plans drawn.

He is also entitled, after some years of close observation, to wonder whether the standard of efficient performance in some of these state services is reasonably equal to that required in private life, among the taxpayers who are supporting such services.

Anybody who ever has dealt with a skeptical tax collector, for example, cannot refrain from making some unfavorable comparisons between his demands for instant compliance, under pain of cruel penalties, and the leisurely pace of work permitted if not actually expected in the public services those tax assessments are designed to nourish.

A few years ago the state bureau of engineering was so hopelessly delayed in its production that the state was forced to contract for outside architectural services. The citizen, it may be supposed, may be permitted to wonder why, if such private fees are justified, including a measure of profit to the firms, the state could not get the men it needs to do these jobs in the first instance.

OTHER FACTORS

But while there is a habit of leisurely performance in these offices, that factor is not the whole explanation. The political leadership of the state is often to blame, too.

The highly touted plan for a medium security prison project illustrates nicely. That was the institution the commissioner of administration meant when he lamented the other day that seven years after first authorization the state doesn't yet have project blueprints.

Presumably those blueprints will now be forthcoming. But that does not yet really assure that the new prison will be built. Policy making officials, have been dallying also during all these years and even now the actual completion of the first segment of the institution depends upon the provision of some additional money from the legislature this fall, which is likely to be sorely pressed to finance more exigent demands.

That money could have been provided at any time during the last seven years, if the authorization was actually justified in the first instance. There are too many hands in the broth, in such business affairs, for expeditious and efficient performance.

Robert Strom An Up and Up Quiz Winner

From The Chicago Tribune

The congressional committee investigating fixed TV quiz shows has shown no interest in Robert Strom, who pulled down $242,600 in prizes on various shows, and we think this is a pity. This contestant may have been the exception to the rule in that he didn't need any coaching to come up with the right answers.

Mr. Strom was 10 years old when he cleaned up in 1957. He seems to be an authentic genius, for, at 13, he is still going strong. Since retiring from TV, he has skipped sixth grade, taken three years of junior high in two, ranking first in a class of 700, and now, though only a sophomore in Bronx High School of Science in New York, has been permitted to attend a special class in science at Columbia university.

He won first prizes in city-wide science fairs in 1958 and 1959 and now is building what he calls a "monitored memoriac" which will add, subtract, multiply, divide and convert answers into numerals intelligible to the layman. One of his science prize gadgets translates phrases from one language into another by pushing buttons, while the other was called a "sylogistic analyzer." We suppose it analyzed syllogisms.

An appearance before the congressional committee by Mr. Strom might do something to restore the faith of all those taken in by quiz fakery.

Teachers Meet
For Three Days

Six Appleton residents will take an active part in meetings of the Wisconsin Education association in Milwaukee today, Friday and Saturday.

About 17,000 teachers are expected to convene for the sessions.

Neil Runenschloss, principal of Roosevelt Junior High school, is chairman of the junior high section which will meet this afternoon.

He has arranged a panel discussion on "The Teaching and Evaluation of All Pupils on the Junior High School Level". One of the speakers will be Gene Britton, a guidance counselor at Wilson Junior High school.

Heading the industrial arts section is Armin Gerhardt, printing instructor at Appleton High school, who has made arrangements for a general sectional meeting this afternoon at which "Analysis and Evaluation of Trends in Industrial Arts" will be discussed. Friday afternoon speakers will discuss six different phases of industrial arts work.

Thursday, Nov. 5, 1959 Appleton Post-Crescent A9

Mrs. Van Horn is chairman of the Wisconsin Congress of Parents and Teachers section at which the White House conference will be reported on by Mrs. Rollin Brown, chairman for the 1960 White House conference for children and youth in Los Angeles.

George Walter of Lawrence college will be the main speaker at the intermediate sectional meeting Friday.

Serving on the WEA resolutions committee this year has been E. John Goodrich, social studies instructor at AHS. Eleven different resolutions will be presented to the WEA delegate assembly at its meeting today. The resolutions deal with public education, professional responsibility, professional growth, professional salaries, recruitment, retirement annuities, higher education, civil defense, financing public education, certification of teachers and compulsory education.

Plan Testimonial For Lloyd Berken

Lloyd J. Berken, 615 W. Summer street, state commander of the American Legion, will be honored at a testimonial dinner Saturday.

About 250 guests are expected.

Urban Klister Post 436, Wrightstown, is holding the dinner at its clubhouse. Berken has been a member of the post for 15 years and had been Brown county commander, Ninth district commander and state vice-commander before becoming state commander.

Guest speaker will be William R. Burke, Los Angeles, unopposed candidate for national American Legion commander in 1961. Toastmaster will be William Haese, Milwaukee, past state commander and past assistant federal district attorney.

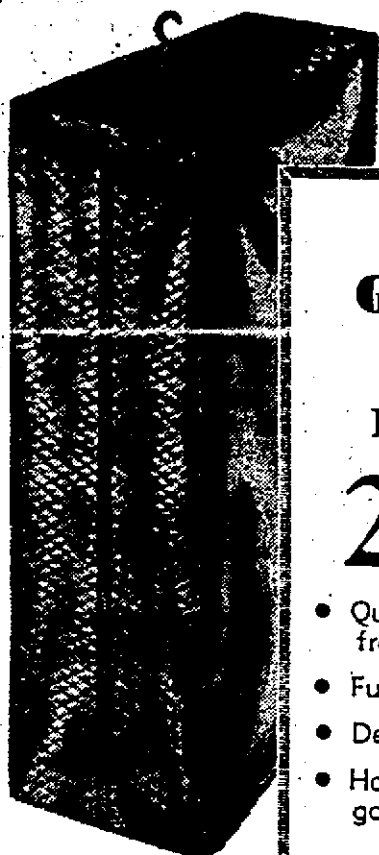

Officers are James Grist, vice president; Richard Kruske, treasurer; Wesley Kolbe, secretary; and John Dietz and Robert P. Hoepfner, trustees.

The newly-created office of club promotion chairman was given to Harold D. Mares. The club meets at the Hoepfner building, 619 E. Wisconsin avenue.

Aldermen Uphold 1½ Per Cent Cut In Board of Education '60 Budget

School Men Deplore 'Padding' Charge, Describe Flat Slash as 'Backdoor Approach'

Aldermen Wednesday re-fused to restore $30,000 of about $43,000 cut from the school board tax levy request by the city budget committee.

Restoration was turned down, 14-to-7, during a committee of the whole (informal) meeting. Approval of budget committee action trimming a flat 1½ per cent of the levy request passed 13-to-8.

The actions came after School Board President Edward V. Krueger and Board Member Dr. A. Neil McLeod denounced statements by some city budget committee men as described in a Post-Crescent story last week.

Budget committeemen who suggested the school board budget is "padded" have "deeply disturbed" him, Krueger said.

"Slur" McLeod characterized use of the word as "a regrettable slur."

One alderman, not a budget committeeman, who said he

Work Request Shut-Off Dates Turned Down

Councilmen See No Need for Early End To Year's Projects

The city council Wednesday rejected the idea of a shut-off date for requests for improvement projects.

Voting 16-to-4, aldermen sent a street and sanitation committee recommendation back to the committee for more study.

With the new special assessments interest ordinance waiving interest charges the first year of the billing for special assessments, the shut-off dates are not needed, contended Ald. Malmstrom.

McLeod

The shut-off dates were suggested, he said, "only so El-den (City Clerk Broehm) is not rushed in preparing the tax roll. This will hamper the street committee."

Street Chairman Ald. Pointer said as far as he's concerned shut-off dates were advised to insure early planning of work and to prevent shuffling of contractors in and out of the city.

Works Director Duszynski said requests for work next year should have been in by now and pinpointed in the 1960 budget. Establishment of shut-off dates for requests actually was meant to move toward the ideal situation, he said.

Work First Adopted

The shut-off dates suggested were first council meeting in July, for requests unaccompanied by waivers of public notices and hearings, and first meeting in August for those with waivers.

The council adopted unanimously the suggested change in the new special assessments "collection ordinance made by the board of public works."

The change will permit the city clerk to keep special assessments charges off the tax roll until after work is done.

CD Directors To Meet Monday At Courthouse

County Civil Defense Coordinator Andrew J. Schlitz will meet Monday evening with county CD directors to discuss a prototype civil defense plan developed by the state.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. at the courthouse in Appleton. The prototype plan could be used by all cities and villages and by the county with very few changes, Schlitz told the leaders in a letter calling the meeting.

He said he has received the state survival plan and the Green Bay target area plan, both of which will come under discussion Monday night.

payers association, "who is very vigilant in these matters" as approving of the budget document and its detail.

School board spokesmen generally deplored the fact that the committee raised questions about items and did not ask the board to explain them. One budget committee man said he also believes this was wrong. One committee man said the fact that surplus shows annually in the school account was a factor in the committee decision.

Snow Plays Part In 5 Accidents

The rain and snow mixture which fell on Appleton Wednesday making driving conditions hazardous played a part in five accidents, two of which resulted in injuries to three persons, according to Appleton police.

Mrs. Arthur Blankenberg, 60, and Dorothy Blankenberg, 28, both of 1033 W. Oklahoma street, received cuts and bruises when the taxicab in which they were riding hit a steel pipe at the St. Paul school grounds in the 200 block of E. Franklin street about 10 a.m. Wednesday.

The driver, John H. Ney, 62, of 1224 W. Fourth street, told police his windows were frosted.

Sylvester H. Brouillard, 34, of 1743 N. Charlotte street, received knee cuts about 1:40 a.m. today when his car hit a tree at 1029 N. Owaissa street.

Clark Street To Remain on Snow Work List

Alderman of Ward Tells Councilmen Of Telephone Calls

Clark street, Atlantic street south to the railroad tracks, will remain on the list of streets for snow removal service.

City councilmen voted 19-to-1 Wednesday to keep it on the list despite a recommendation by the board of public works to take it off.

The vote came after Ald. Tucker said his telephone was ringing "off the hook" after Wednesday's Post-Crescent was distributed.

"It's one time I was glad I'd read my paper," he said. Removal of snow from the street is necessary because the narrow roadway about the sidewalk on both sides, Tucker explained and shouldn't be stopped because three property owners ask consideration for what they consider a too-high assessment.

Cites Considerations

Ald. Pointer, street chairman, explained that the board of public works took these things into consideration:

1. Snow removal work on Clark street costs twice as much as elsewhere because the street is so narrow equipment cannot get into it to work.
 2. People asked for it originally, but apparently don't want it any more.
 3. The city cannot remove snow from in front of one place, not the next and so on down a block.
 4. The city is not soliciting snow removal work, it wants to get out of as much as possible. If there's any trouble getting a fair price, the city would just as soon forget about it.
- Tucker then moved for adoption of the previously recommended charges: 10 cents a lineal foot for the season for property owners between Atlantic and Packard street and 30 cents a foot for landowners between Packard street and the railroad tracks.

The company's fiscal year began Nov. 1 and will run through Oct. 31. Annual meeting date has been set for Jan. 15. Authorized capitalization is $100,000 with 3,200 shares of stock issued at $10 par value each.

Brady Staff Members

The original stockholders of Creative Group, O'Brien, Otte, Fisher and Baker, resigned from the Brady Co. two weeks ago. All four were officers of that firm and O'Brien was also a director. Since that time four other Brady staff members have joined Creative Group.

The new president has served as president of the Northeastern Wisconsin chapter of the Sales Executive club and as public information chairman of the Community Fund and the fluoridation campaign. Married and father of six children, he and his family live at 1514 S. Outagamie street.

Otte, an advertising account supervisor, is county vice chairman of the American Red Cross and has assisted in fund drives for Community Fund, Memorial hospital and Lawrence college.

Fisher, who will head the new advertising agency's art department, has received design excellence awards from the Art Directors' clubs of Milwaukee and Chicago.

Baker, who will direct Creative Group's public relations division, is a member of the Appleton Memorial Hospital board of directors and is active in church, YMCA, United Community Services, VNA and other civic groups.

Black Creek Boy Killed

compared to 683 on this same date a year ago.

Outagamie County Coroner Bernard H. Kemps said Fox was driving north on 47 toward Black Creek and the Nachtwey boy and his two brothers, Patrick, 11, and Michael, 12, were walking south toward their home.

Waited For Truck

Robert, Kemps said, ran ahead of his brothers as they approached their home, waited for a truck which was headed south to pass and then stepped into the path of the Fox car.

Fox told Kemps, Sheriff Robert Heinritz, Outagamie county Police Capt. Ronald Decker and Sgt. Lowell Veitch that he was driving about 30 miles an hour and put on his brakes and sounded his horn when he saw the children and approaching truck.

The youth was hit by the right front fender of the Fox car. He died almost instantly. Kemps said, of a compound basal skull fracture. The youth's brothers told authorities they were walking home from the Black Creek grade school so they would arrive early to help with evening chores. They normally would ride with a second bus load of children leaving the school.

21st In County

The youth's death was the third such traffic fatality in Outagamie county this year and the county's 21st traffic death.

A 19-year-old Kenosha girl was among the other three fatalities. Carmel Volpendesta, Kenosha, was killed at 1 a. m. today when the car in which she and two other 19-year-old girls were riding hit a bridge abutment. The accident occurred on Kenosha County Trunk E, seven miles northwest of the city.

Mark Pucheger, 4, Abbottsford, was killed Wednesday when the automobile in which he was riding skidded off snowpacked highway 13 near Dorchester in Marathon county.

Leonard Pronschinske, 35, Independence, was killed Wednesday when his car struck a bridge abutment on the Trempealeau road near his home.

Nachtwey Services

The Nachtwey boy was born Dec. 21, 1949, in Green Bay.

Funeral services will be at 10 a. m. Saturday at St. Mary Catholic church, Black Creek, with burial in the parish cemetery. Catechism classes at the church will be cancelled Saturday.

Friends may call at the Burdick Funeral home, Black Creek, after 7 p. m. Friday. The rosary will be said at 8:45 p. m. Friday.

an Allentown, Pa., department store.

Max Hess, owner of the store, told last night of paying $15,000 to get an employee on the "The $64,000 Question" show in 1955 so he could plug Hess' store.

The employee, Kenneth Hoffer, missed his third question and won no money, but Hess said he did not consider his own payment wasted, because of publicity he received.

He was to be followed by the heads of the Columbia Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting company.

Revson declared emphatically that Revlon, a cosmetics producer, had no idea any hanky panky was occurring on the big money quiz programs.

However, Abrams, in a sworn statement introduced at the hearings, had a different story — as did the show producers.

Testifying in person today, Abrams said he honestly believes officials of both Revlon and its advertising agencies knew they were controlled.

'Act of Desperation'

He said if Martin Revson was not aware that suggestions came out of weekly meetings to determine contestants' futures, then it was because he was too busy with other functions.

"The act of controlling the 'Question' and the 'Challenge,'" Abrams said, "was an act of desperation to try to save the shows."

The controlling, he added, was resorted to after the shows had dropped from a dizzying height of popularity to almost an also-ran.

"I believe the producers reacted to this pressure with fixing and rigging," Abrams testified.

Abrams said the methods used on the program were not always apparent right away. "It wasn't until months after Gino Prado appeared that I realized his questions had been confined to Italian opera," Abrams said. "He had been billed as an expert on opera generally."

Prado is the Italian-American cobbler who was one of the early big money winners.

No Open Suggestions

Abrams testified that at the weekly sponsor-producer meetings there was never any open discussion of having a contestant continue or drop off, but such things were "always expressed as a hope or a desire" by Revlon representatives.

He said Charles Revson, president of Revlon, attended meetings infrequently and "I would say he didn't know."

He said Revlon, when it had proof of outright rigging, pulled out as sponsor.

In announcing that Kintner and Stanton have been called to testify, Harris said the subcommittee felt it necessary "to go to the top echelon to get the whole picture" of the quiz scandals.

CBS, following the subcommittee's initial round of hearings last month, banned all big money quiz and give-away shows and outlawed what it termed other deceitful program practices.

NBC refused to go along in scrapping all quiz programs but pledged that it has taken steps to prevent fraud.

Last to Testify

The testimony of the two network chiefs was expected to wind up the current phase of the congressional probe.

Harris said he planned to end the hearings, now in their fourth day, sometime today. However, he and other subcommittee members have indicated the inquiry may be extended to take in other network program practices they regard as questionable.

Before moving into hearings on the Allentown matter, the subcommittee heard conflicting testimony as to whether officials of Revlon, Inc., were aware of rigging of the $64,000 shows they sponsored.

Both President Charles Revson and his brother, Martin Revson, had testified they knew nothing of such actions and disclaimed any responsibility.

James D. Webb, an advertising executive handling Revlon advertising, also testified the firm's officials knew nothing of such practices, but George Abrams, former Revlon advertising chief, said the practice was known to officials who sometimes suggested eliminating colorless contestants.

An affidavit from Shirley Bernstein, an associate producer of "The $64,000 Challenge," supported earlier testimony of others associated with the shows that Revlon officials knew of and joined in the controls.

Miss Bernstein C. Revson

Several contestants have named her as having provided them with answers to questions they later were asked on the show.

She testified she provided such answers about 20 percent of the time, but said some shows were not tampered with at all.

"Was it your complete understanding from the start that you were receiving instructions from the sponsor as to how a match should come out?" she was asked.

"Yes, completely," she replied. She said the rigging was done at the request of Steve Carlin, a producer, after he had met with the sponsors. Carlin also has testified the programs were controlled.

As his brother had earlier, Charles Revson said he had never at meetings with the show producers or elsewhere expressed to them the hope that some particular contestant would stay on the show or be eliminated.

When the charge first arose, he said, he asked the firm's attorney to investigate. The report he got, he said, was that the producers gave assurances a similarity of questions in briefings and on the show was "sheer accident."

"I was satisfied with the explanation," Revson said.

In another phase of the congressional investigation, a committee representative said that Dan Enright, one of the packagers of the "Twenty-One" program upon which Charles Van Doren starred, had been questioned in a closed door session last month.

Enright's former partner, Jack Barry, has not been before the committee, the spokesman said in reply to a reporter's questions.

After the first disclosures of TV quiz rigging, the National Broadcasting company, owner of "Twenty-One," canceled Barry-Enright production activities on the network. Since then the partnership has been dissolved.

Enright, a resident of Scarsdale, N. Y., said last night that on the advice of counsel he could make no public statement. Barry has been unavailable for comment.

ities two months ago of the "dangerous emotional reactions" that could explode over rejection of Panamanian complaints relating to the Canal Zone.

The demonstrations Monday were linked with the celebration of Panama's fifty-sixth independence anniversary. The demonstrators planned to "show the flag" in the Canal Zone to underline their demand that the United States recognize Panamanian sovereignty over the 500-mile-square area, which the United States controls, by treaty in perpetuity.

More than 80 persons were injured, windows were broken at the U. S. embassy and the U. S. Information service, the American flag at the embassy was torn up and at least six U. S. automobiles in the Canal Zone were burned.

U. S. Criticized

Foreign Minister Miguel Moreno, Jr., in the note handed to U. S. Ambassador Julian Harrington, said the Panamanian government "laments" the occurrences Monday and "in no way can accept or approve acts of the type that motivated your protest."

But the note accused the U. S. troops and Canal Zone police of such "unjustifiable acts" against the demonstrators "as firing on groups of unarmed Panamanians and throwing tear gas bombs on various sectors of the city."

"These have left more than 40 Panamanian citizens wounded by the actions of the armed forces of the United States," the note added. It also complained that the canal police had mishandled the Panamanian flag.

Moreno said his government hopes the Canal Zone police and U. S. troops will "act in the future with greater deliberation and prudence to avoid a repetition of the occurrences that we all regret."

The zone itself was quiet yesterday, with Panamanian and U. S. troops patrolling the boundary line to keep demonstrators away. Panama was put out of bounds for the 9,000 Americans living in the zone.

(Although this is addressed to Chevrolet owners, we'd be glad to have you read it, no matter what make you now own or plan to buy. It might well be as interesting and significant to you as to the Chevrolet owner.)

TO THE MORE THAN 16 MILLION PEOPLE WHO OWN CHEVROLETS

The first and the latest—the 1912 and the 1960 Chevrolet. The progress represented here is the result of continuing efforts to make your new Chevrolet always more beautiful, more useful and more valuable in every respect.

You belong to the largest family of owners in the automotive world.

We hope you're proud of that. It must give you great satisfaction to know that your judgment in choosing Chevrolet has been confirmed by so many other people.

We know that we can hold your preference and your loyalty only by meeting our responsibilities to you fully and completely from the day you buy your Chevrolet to the day you trade it in. And so we'd like to talk with you about our responsibilities as we see them, and what we are doing to meet them.

Our first responsibility, we think, is clear: To design and build products that satisfy your needs, and your wants to the highest possible degree. To that end, we have done these things for 1960:

Made the 1960 Chevrolet more economical, roomier, more quiet and comfortable, easier to handle and maneuver. Introduced the compact and revolutionary Corvair. Produced a new line of Chevrolet trucks with unprecedented advances in efficiency, cargo handling, driver comfort and ability to get a job done.

But it isn't enough to design and build the kinds of products you want. They must be built right. Solidly. Carefully.

Let us assure you of this: Chevrolet's fine reputation as a solid, well-built, dependable product is being safeguarded by more checks and inspections and tests, than ever before.

Along with your Chevrolet dealer, we want you to have available the finest and most complete service facilities. That is why we conduct training schools for Chevrolet dealer mechanics. Study and recommend improved service equipment and techniques. Maintain the industry's most complete parts warehouse system.

Finally, neither Chevrolet nor your Chevrolet dealer has any intention of forgetting you after you buy. To help keep you happy with your Chevrolet, we have established a department new to us, and so far as we know, new to the automobile industry. This is the Chevrolet Department of Owner Relations, whose only job is the coordination of Chevrolet and Chevrolet dealer activities so that you enjoy utmost satisfaction during your entire period of ownership. Through this department, and through all the other extraordinary steps we are taking, Chevrolet and your Chevrolet dealer hope to keep you a happy member of the Chevrolet owner family.

Break Ground for St. John Rectory

Little Chute — Ground breaking ceremonies have been held for the new rectory at St. John's Catholic parish. Work on the structure is scheduled to get underway soon. The Dick Oudenhoven Construction company of Kaukauna has been awarded the general contract. Cost of the general contract is approximately $90,000 with some variance due to alterations. The remainder of the contracts including heating, electrical work and plumbing will be let at a future date. The general contract was let early so work could get started before frost sets in. 24-Room Structure The rectory will consist of 24 rooms, not including bathrooms, vestibule and closets. The Rev. Martin Vosbeek, pastor, said, "We expect the rectory will provide for all future needs." The rectory will be of three

Lonesome Pine Tree Will Give Way to New Rectory

Little Chute — The first spade of dirt for ground breaking at the site of the new St. John Catholic parish rectory, was turned beside a tall lonesome pine tree. The Rev. Martin Vosbeek, pastor, turned a page in history when he broke ground at the base of the tree. Straight as an arrow, the pine has withstood the rigors of man and nature for many years. It is the one remaining pine of a stand after which Pine street was named. This street borders on the east side of the parish property. The new rectory will face Pine street with the main entrance near the sidewalk. Now, with the building of the new structure, the pine will have to be removed. For many years it has stood alone as a memory to the tall trees which originally attracted the Dutch settlers up a path from the nearby Fox river. The "Path of the Pines" it was known as in the early days of the village. The path led from the embarking spot being arrested for speeding distinct units combined as one. One section will be one story high and will house of fices, a meeting room and vault. Another section will include the residential section with the pastor's private office, living room, dining room, breakfast nook, utility room and housekeeper's quarters on the first floor. The second floor will have a bedroom, study and bath for each of four priests and two bedrooms and a common bath for guests. Remove Porch A 4-car garage will make up the third section of the building. A covered walkway will join the rectory to the sacristy of the church. The office part of the building will be 41 by 37 feet and the residential unit will be 91 by 35 feet. The rectory will be located directly in front of the present one. This will enable the priests to live in the old rectory until the new one is completed. Construction will require the front porch of the present rectory to be removed and an entranceway will be temporarily installed on the north side. The present rectory was built in 1904 for a pastor and one assistant. The parish has grown to a pastor and four assistants now. Work on the rectory followed two parish meetings at which men of the congregation approved the project. On May 15 the original plans were approved and on June 17 permission was granted by Bishop Stanislaus V. Bona to proceed. Early talks included the possibility of remodeling the present rectory. However, checks by the architect and contractors proved that it would not be feasible to do any remodeling work. The cost would be prohibitive and the parish would still have an-

Teenage Keglers Meet Friday for First Lessons

Kaukauna — The first session for teenage keglers in the recreation department sponsored bowling league will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at Verbena's alleys. Jack Hilgenberg, instructor and supervisor, will show beginners the fundamentals of good bowling. Included will be instructions on safe handling of the ball, courtesy on the lanes, the pendulum swing and delivery, correct stance and 4-step delivery. After instructions a few practice games will be rolled and winter leagues organized. Competition is open to any youth in the city, boys or girls, between 14 and 18 years. Students may register at the recreation office or report to the alleys Friday. The initial Friday session is made possible as classes will be dismissed for the teachers' convention.

Schools Plan Programs to Observe Week

High, Vocational, Grade and College Plan Open House

Kaukauna — Special programs for the observance of National Education week are planned at Kaukauna High school, the Kaukauna School of Vocational and Adult Education, Park and Nicolet elementary schools and Outagamie County Teachers college.

The high school plans a "Parents Go To School Night" on Wednesday and has selected "Praise and Appreciate Your Schools" as the theme for the week. Miss Frances Corry is serving as general chairman for the high school program.

Parents will be given the opportunity to visit various classrooms and will see for themselves whether science, math and laboratory facilities are adequate, if rooms are overcrowded and other factors important in the education of their children.

Other Schools
Students from Park and Nicolet schools have delivered notes to parents asking them to visit classrooms next week. The invitation is general entitling parents to visit classes any day during the week although Clifford Hodgins, elementary supervisor, expressed hope most parents try to visit before Friday to prevent last day congestion.

Both day and evening classes will be open to visitors next week at the Kaukauna Vocational school, according to Dominic Bordini, director. Visitors may sit in on classes from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Friday.

S. W. Ihlenfeldt, president of Outagamie County Teachers college, said open house at the college will be held from 3 to 7 p.m. on Nov. 15. Parents of students enrolled together with potential students or area residents are welcome to look over facilities available for future teachers, stated Ihlenfeldt.

3 KHS Students Enter Spanish Test for State

Kaukauna — Three Kaukauna High school girls will be entered in a Spanish speaking program to be held in conjunction with the teachers' convention at Milwaukee.

Representing Kaukauna will be Francis Nelson, Marilyn Hilgenberg and Abigail Brenzel. The girls won first and second places in a district contest at Menasha recently. Kathryn Hartjes, third place winner at Menasha, will accompany the group as alternate.

Mrs. Howard Sprenger, instructor, will accompany the group and serve as chaperon.

Girl Scout Leaders To Fate Fund Workers At Kimberly Sunday

Kimberly — Girl Scout leaders of the village are to bring cookies for the tea planned from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday at Holy Name cafeteria. Workers in the fund drive are to meet for the tea at which time materials will be distributed. In charge of the fund drive are Mrs. Anthony Oudenhoven and Mrs. Thomas Tidmarsh.

243-582 Lead Major League

Kaukauna — Paul Koska slammed a 243 game and Don Gerrits rapped a 582 series to share honors in the Men's Major league at the Bowling bar.

Homemakers to Hear Student Tell of Summer in Germany

Kaukauna — Miss Barbara Boyd, Kaukauna High school student who spent the summer in Germany, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Afternoon Homemakers at 1:45 p.m. Friday at the Kaukauna Vocational school, Sturgeon Bay Trip.
Miss Boyd spent her time living with a German family on the youth exchange program. A school must have a foreign exchange student attending classes before a representative of that school can be selected for overseas visits. Kaukauna had a Danish exchange student here last year, the first for the school. Forty-three club members

Nine KHS Cross Country Runners Receive Letters

Kaukauna — Nine members of the Kaukauna High school cross country team earned letters this fall, according to Harold Kohn, coach.

Squad members elected Jim Zuelzke as captain for 1960 and named Merle Hammond the most valuable for 1959. In the overall campaign, Kaukauna took five firsts, three seconds and one third. The A-squad accounted for four firsts and one second and the third while B-squad runners took one first and two seconds. Highlighting the year was the taking of the Mid-East conference championship.

Varsity letter winners include Bruce Vanevenhoven, captain; Mark Asman, Harold Gast, Merle Hammond, Jerry Jaki, Norman Micke, Roger Nussbaum, Milo Strauss, Jim Zuelzke and Jerry Haen, manager.

Special Honors

Winners of special awards were Merle Hammond and Mark Asman, both taking ribbons at the Two Rivers invitational meet and medals in the Mid-Eastern conference run.

Jerry Jaki won a medal in Mid-east competition while Jim Zuelzke and Dick Spaulding of the B-team took ribbons at the Two Rivers invitational meet.

Finance Unit To Air 1960 Work Projects

Kaukauna — The finance committee of the common council will meet at 4 p.m. Friday to discuss items which should be included in the public works budget for 1960.

Earlier this year the engineer drew up an extensive report on public works projects facing the city for the next few years. The finance unit will attempt to ascertain which work has priority for the coming year and the amount necessary in the budget to complete projects.

The purchasing committee will meet following the finance session to discuss specifications for a new sander for the street department. Aldermen are anxious to purchase a sander as the present ones are inadequate to handle work satisfactorily.

Specifications are to be drawn by the city engineer.

14 KHS Girls to be Represented on Tumbling Team

Kaukauna — Fourteen girls were selected for the tumbling team at Kaukauna High school after try-outs were held under the direction of Mrs. Carlton Brown, physical education director.

Practice sessions are to be held on the second and fourth Monday of each month and appearances will be made during halftime of varsity basketball games.

Team members include Jane Baribeau, Mary Behnke, Linda Bisek, Jeanne Hauer, Marilyn Hilgenberg, Judith Jacobson, Linda Kemp, Karen Krumm, Gretchen Kuhn, Marianne Lamine, Shirley O'Brien, Dawn Voet and Lois Woelz.

Homemakers Club Extends Trip Reservation Deadline

Kimberly — Members of the Homemakers club voted Tuesday night to extend reservation deadline for the Milwaukee trip, Nov. 11, until the bus has been filled.

Late reservations can be made by calling Mrs. Emil Betters or Mrs. Fabian Hietpas. The group will visit the Memorial Art Center and a brewery in the morning and in the afternoon will see the stage play, "Once More With Feeling."

Mrs. Fred Fox and Mrs. Paul Portmann along with Mrs. Denver Behn, adviser, were named delegates to a meeting at Milwaukee Saturday at which plans will be visited Sturgeon Bay recently where they toured the museum, gift shop and a leather goods factory. Mrs. J. J. Martens, Jr., was in charge of the trip. Program chairman for Friday is Mrs. Merritt Black.

Mrs. Len Van Zeeland is chairman of the social from 1:45 to 2:15 p.m. during which a dessert lunch will be served. Assisting will be Mrs. Joseph VandeLoo, Mrs. A. M. Lang, Mrs. Ed Sasnowski, Mrs. Emmet Rohan, Mrs. Henry Vanevenhoven, Mrs. Dan Hennessy, Mrs. Julius Martens, Jr., and Mrs. E. J. Bolinske.

Cast Members Selected for Two 1-Act Shows Nov. 23

Kaukauna — Cast members for two 1-act plays to be presented Nov. 23 have been selected by Miss Barbara Little, dramatics club adviser at Kaukauna High school.

Appearing in "Junior Buys A New Car," will be Norman Micke, Gwynne Vils, Sharon Spice, Joanne VandeHey, Neil Weyenberg, Dale Van Dyke, Jack Verhagen, Joan Ludvigsen, Laurie Weeks, and Jerry Heindel.

Student directors will be Nancy Noie, Darlene Vanevenhoven and Judith Jacobson. Student directors for "The Ghost Wore White" will be Marilyn Hilgenberg, Joan Brautigan and Nancy Van Dyke.

Miss Little and Mrs. Howard Sprenger will serve as faculty directors.

Cast members for the latter play are Karen Grebe, Diana Konrad, Eilyn Verbeten, Lynne Gerend, Joanne Wimberger, Al Mather and Greg Russo.

Evangelistic Services Set At Kaukauna

Kaukauna — Special evangelistic and divine healing services are being conducted at the Kaukauna Assembly of God church, the Rev. Walter Tyson has announced.

Evangelist Gladys Gulsvig, of Cedar Falls, Iowa, will preach and pray for the sick and afflicted. The meetings start at 7:30 each evening except Monday and Saturday.

Members voted to hold a potluck supper in conjunction with the Dec. 1 meeting. Gifts will be exchanged and coffee strips and seals to be used to get gifts for orphans will be collected. Program for the day will be a hair stylist from Menasha.

PROTECT YOUR HEART

Medical science reports new means in inhibiting clogging of arteries with fatty-cholesterol deposits, in helping fat-removing properties of remarkable new LECITABS—proven in dramatic laboratory tests.

Not a medicine, not a drug, a sensational dietary discovery... LECITABS... may add years to your life by helping you protect your heart against the danger of coronary arteries.

Although there is a divided opinion among some medical men, many specialists believe that the excess cholesterol in your body causes from food may be a major factor in hardening and narrowing the arteries, in their premature aging and degenerative states, in placing a dangerous strain on the heart.

Repeated laboratory tests prove that the remarkable new LECITABS have important fat-removing properties. Thousands of men and women take the LECITABS—type of dietary supplement (after fat-rich meals) because they believe it helps control excess fatty-cholesterol in the blood stream. The LECITABS plan offers these important advantages:

(1) Helps keep fatty cholesterol globules in suspension in the blood stream, giving the body a better opportunity to discard any unwanted excess;
(2) Has vital fat-removing properties, serves as an essential function in helping the body to absorb, distribute and use fats;
(3) Inhibits deposit of fatty cholesterol on artery walls, thus minimizing the risk of arteries with fat accumulation, a process which narrows their diameter so blood is slowed under greater and continuing strain.

If you feel it is time to LECITABS, if your blood stream is loaded with excess cholesterol, if you are at risk of heart trouble, if you want to keep your arteries young and free of fatty deposits, take the LECITABS after meals. LECITABS are formulated from specially processed, pure, natural soybeans, contain no artificial colors, flavors, or preservatives. ASK YOUR DOCTOR about LECITABS as an aid in lowering blood cholesterol levels.

Neenah Girl, Omro Boy Named Outstanding County 4-H Members

Omro — Winnebago county 4-H club members were recognized for achievements during the past year at the annual achievement night program Wednesday at Omro High school.

Jean Kofler, route 2, Neenah, and Peter Roycraft, route 1, Omro, were named achievement boy and girl. The awards were presented by Orville Marohn of the Winnebago county Farm Bureau. Miss Kofler, a member of Rippling Brook club, completed seven years of club work and Roycraft, Smile A While club, completed 11 years work.

County Levy Cut Means $1 on Tax Rate for Neenah

Neenah — City officials today estimated that the $206,000 reduction in the Winnebago county tax levy for 1960 could mean a saving to the city of Neenah of about $40,000 or about $1 on the tax rate.

The saving to Menasha would be about $30,000. City and town officials will receive next week the amount of the state and county taxes to be paid by them since there are state special charges and other specific costs to be borne in addition to their percentage of the state and county tax levy.

Winnebago County 1960 Tax Levy Reduced $206,647

$220,000 Transfer Permits Cut Budget at $3,997,396

Oshkosh — A $206,647 reduction in the 1960 property tax levy for Winnebago county was approved by supervisors Wednesday.

The $1,464,218 levy will help finance a budget of $3,997,396. Although the levy is lower, the '60 budget is $27,508 more than last year.

The lower levy was made possible by one of the largest transfers, $220,000 from the general fund, in recent years. Additional revenues also helped.

Fees Up
 Fees taken in by the register of deeds are up. State aid for care of hospital patients went up $18,000.

General government expenditures went up $53,799. Included in the rise are nearly $15,000 for microfilming equipment for the county court and repairs to the courthouse of more than $18,000.

Airport Cost Rise
 County airport expenditures jumped to $184,681, or $43,037 more than in 1958. Additional runway, control tower and land purchase boosted the '60 costs. Supervisors expect this to be the final extensive outlay for the port. Future improvements will run near $80,000 for parallel taxi-ways, but is not expected for two years.

An outlay of $75,750 for street work in the city of Neenah on Lake and Commercial streets helped raise the highway costs. The outlay will be cushioned somewhat by a lower county trunk highway expense.

Oshkosh taxpayers will have to pay about $500,000 for their share of the 1960 levy. Neenah's share will be about $278,000 and Menasha about $204,000.

Recreation, Park, Pool Budgets Cut

Menasha — The 1960 park, recreation and swimming pool budget was slashed $15,135 from its preliminary estimate by the park and recreation board at the November meeting.

The cut was directed by Mayor R. G. DuCharme, who specified a maximum of $95,000.

The budget, as revised, totals $97,747. The mayor said he and the council will insist on the $95,000 maximum.

The three department budgets originally totaled $128,542, which includes estimated revenues of $16,661. The net figure was $111,882.

For next summer's swimming, season pool passes will be $10 for families, $5 for adults, $3 for students and $2 for children 13 and under.

Individual swimming pool ticket fees will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students and children.

Swimming lessons for out-of-town youngsters will cost $4. Paint for the swimming pool and its buildings will be purchased from 1959 surplus funds.

Neenah Mayor, Clerk On League Committees

Neenah — Mayor Chester S. Bell has been appointed to the legislative committee and City Clerk R. V. Hauser to the election administration committee of the League of Wisconsin Municipalities.

2-Car Accident

Menasha — A car driven by Robert Quella, 20, 621 Taylor street, struck the rear of a halted car driven by Bruno J. Haas, 39, 735 DePere street about 12:10 p.m. Wednesday at Third and Racine streets. Both were eastbound.

Quella told police he was unable to stop his car on the wet pavement.

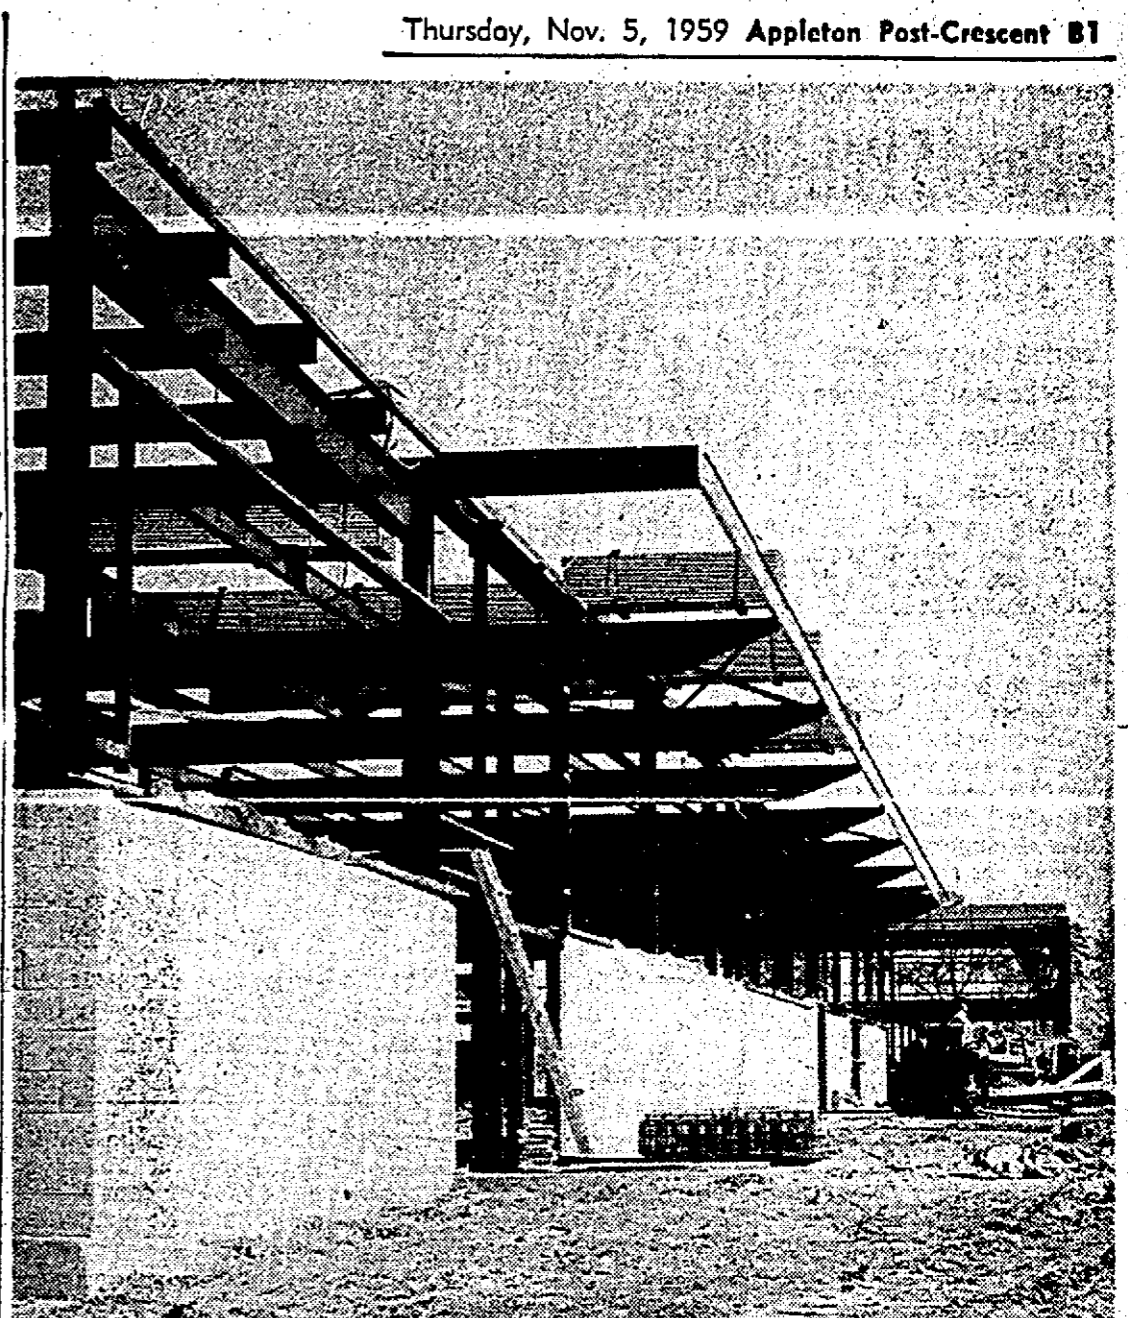

Car Gets Dunking, Driver Arrested After Accident

Oshkosh — A 1958 model Swedish car took a dunking and its driver was charged with inattentive driving after it went off Hickory Lane into Lake Winnebago about 10:31 p.m. Wednesday.

Richard G. Marshall, 2 Eveline street, said he was demonstrating the car to Mrs. Donn Kleinschmitt, 1208 Bayshore drive, and didn't notice it was off the roadway until he was about 20 feet from the water. Marshall said he applied the brakes but the car continued on into the water, ending up about 4 feet from shore. Tire marks indicated the vehicle traveled 227 feet before entering the lake.

About 11:45 p.m., John Ostertag, 1652 Sheridan street, reported to Oshkosh police that a car driven by Dr. Donn Kleinschmitt, 1208 Bayshore drive, had turned in front of him to gain entry into the courthouse parking lot. The two vehicles collided with minor damage.

Ostertag told police Kleinschmitt showed him a deputy sheriff's badge and claimed he had the siren on at the time he turned in front of him. Kleinschmitt told authorities he was not using the siren when he overtook and passed Ostertag. Police are checking the legality of the siren on the vehicle.

Steel Shortages Resulting From the lengthy strike have not hampered construction of the new $300,000 plant at the south end of Neenah by the Neenah Foundry company. Much of the required steel was on hand or on order prior to the strike. The steel framework made an attractive pattern for a Post-Crescent photographer.

Council Okays Lights At 41, W. Cecil Corner

Installation to be on City Side,

Town of Neenah Board Rejected Project

Neenah — Although the town of Neenah board did not go along with the idea, the Neenah council Wednesday night voted to install mercury vapor lights at those parts of the intersection of W. Cecil street with new Highway 41 which are within the city.

Ald. James Dinius, street and sanitation committee chairman, moved that two of the present four lights at the Cecil street bridge and Green Bay road intersection be moved to the new 4-lane intersection and three additional lights secured.

The township was asked to place four lights at the intersection, but refused. Ald. Warren Sanders contended that "if the condition is that serious, referring to the hazards at the intersection, we should get the cooperation of other areas. We just asked to take whether the state highway department would be a party county system. These little to the cost of the new lights."

expenses make the budget for next year.

"Will State Help?" Ald. Paul Hansen inquired whether the state highway department would be a party county system. These little to the cost of the new lights.

Du Charme, Giese Get New Terms On Committees

Menasha — Mayor R. G. DuCharme and City Atty. William R. Giese today received notice of reappointment to League of Wisconsin Municipalities committees.

The mayor will serve a second term on the league's education committee. The city attorney will serve his fifth term on the legislative committee.

The reappointments were made by League Pres. A. P. Horkheimer, Randolph village president. Horkheimer was named league president at last month's convention in Green Bay.

since it was on a state highway. Wayne Bryan, public works director, replied the state accepts no responsibility to furnish lighting.

Twin City Area To Pay 45 Pct. OF Tax Levy

Some Supervisors
See Lower Budgets
In Future Years

Oshkosh — The Twin Cities and their surrounding townships will pay about 45 per cent of the new Winnebago county tax levy, providing about $658,000 of the $1,464,218 tax levy.

The tax levy brings the amount to be collected from the various cities and townships down below that collected the last two years. This is despite the budget nearing $4 million for its highest record.

Several supervisors after the meeting thought future years might see smaller budgets since some of the huge outlays of recent years, such as for the airport and the hospital and home projects, are nearing completion.

Relocate Offices?

Supv. Oliver Thomsen, Neenah, thought some planning should be given to a possible relocation of the welfare department or other county agencies since, he said, the welfare program is constantly expanding with a need for more and more space.

He wondered about the practicality of the county purchasing a home near the courthouse which could be used to house some of the county agencies. Supv. John Wallace, Oshkosh, welfare board chairman, objected to moving the welfare department out of the courthouse because of its work with the courts and district attorney's office.

The percentage which each of the districts is to pay of the tax levy was approved by the board on the basis of the equalized valuations.

Neenah will pay 19.057 per cent of the state and county tax levy and Menasha 14.741 per cent. Town of Menasha will bear 8.419 per cent of the cost and town of Neenah 2.710 per cent.

The other percentages for northern end townships are town of Clayton 1.157 per cent, town of Vinland 1.2 per cent, town of Winneconne, 1.177 per cent, town of Winchester, .718 of 1 per cent, town of Wolf River .783 of 1 per cent and village of Winneconne .923 of 1 per cent.

OSC Orchestra, Choir to Present Handel Festival

Oshkosh — Oshkosh State college choir and symphony orchestra will present a joint concert featuring Handel's work Nov. 24 in commemoration of the bicentennial of Handel's death in 1759.

One of the featured works of the Handel Festival will be the Oratorio "Judas Maccabaeus." The selection will be performed by the 80 voice choir, an accompanying 20-piece orchestra and four guest soloists under the direction of Dr. Stanley Linton, college choir master.

"Judas Maccabaeus" was composed in 1746 and first performed in Covent Garden, London, in 1757 and was performed 55 times before the composer's death 12 years later.

Some of the better known selections of the Oratorio include the baritone aria, "Arm, Arm Ye Brave," the tenor aria, "Sound the Alarm" and the chorus, "Hallelujah, Amen."

Other featured works on the program will be performed by the 50-piece college symphony orchestra under the direction of Prof. David Zeff. The orchestra will play "Concerto Grosso No. 7 in B-flat Major" and "Royal Fireworks Music." The concert will end with each guest soloist singing a Handel aria accompanied by the orchestra.

Guest Soloists

Guest soloists will be Lydia Lund, Wilmette, Ill., soprano; Marjorie Moore Anania, Oshkosh, contralto; Ralph Neilsen, Chicago, tenor; and Bernard Izzo, Chicago, baritone.

Miss Lund, who is a graduate of Northwestern university and studied at American conservatory of Music, Chicago, has appeared as soloist with Chicago Symphony orchestra and numerous oratorio societies in the Midwest.

Mrs. Anania will be featured in "Ombre Mai Fu." She has been featured as soloist

'Powder Puff Stag' Features Style Show

Oshkosh — The "Powder Puff Stag," given by women's division of Oshkosh Chamber of Commerce, expanded this year into an all-day affair. Over 200 women attended the noon luncheon Wednesday at the Athearn hotel and 370 reservations were made for the buffet supper in the evening. Commentary for the style show at lunch was done by Mary Ann James of a Green Bay TV station. Chairman Mrs. Harold Wahlgren introduced Miss Arline Laetke, division president, and guests Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Jamison of Milwaukee, Sgt. Margaret Carleton, WAC recruiter from Milwaukee, and Mrs. Ruben Pennock and her daughter Mary who was chosen Little Miss Ember in Oshkosh's 1959-60 fire safety campaign. Two emcees kept the program going at the evening buffet — Ken St. Clair and Adrian d'Hanis. Appearing on the program were high school students singing selections from "The King and I," under the direction of Fred Leist, a barbershop quartet, a women's kitchen band and dances by students of Arthur Murray dancing school. Male guests were allowed to attend the stag party after 10 o'clock for dancing. Booths displaying Christmas merchandise and manned by chamber members were open during the day and evening on the main floor of the hotel.

Farewell Party

Neenah — Mrs. James Tooman and Mrs. M. J. Grode were hostesses at a Monday farewell party honoring Mrs. James Austin, who will make her home in Beloit.

Honor 4-H Girls At Annual Program

Oshkosh — "My Life in Scotland" was related by Miss Janet Sperstad as part of the program for Winnebago county 4-H achievement program Wednesday. Miss Sperstad spent the summer months residing with families in Scotland. Highlights of her years in 4-H club work were told by Jean Kofler, Rippling Brook club. Miss Kofler was named achievement girl and was one of three graduating 4-H club members. Group singing was led by Eugene Anderson with Mrs. Charles Pride as pianist. The 4-H members and parents were welcomed by Clayton Stearns, mayor of Omro, at the program held in Omro High school. Clothing awards went to Lois Techlin, route 1, Neenah; Judy Achterberg, route 1, Omro; Sheridan Spiegelberg, route 2, Neenah; Judy Radloff, route 5, Oshkosh; Marilyn Helm, route 1, Winneconne; and Rhoda Laabs, Oshkosh. Home Furnishings Jasper Smith of J. C. Penney company gave home furnishing awards to Sandra Jones, route 1, Pickett; Judy Achterberg, route 1, Omro; Nancy Meilahn, route 1, Pickett; Karen Swenson, Eureka; Gloria Johnson, route 3, Oshkosh; and Darlene Zwicky, route 5, Oshkosh. F. A. Salm of Fox Valley Horsemen's association named Karen Swenson, Eureka, as winner of the pleasure horse award. Baking and honey awards were distributed by Melvin Berholtz, president of the county Beekeepers association. Awards given by county homemakers to girls enrolled in home economics projects and based on record books were distributed by Mrs. O. G. McSchooler and Mrs. William Wiesner. Home Grounds M. A. Haller of Green Terrace nursery named Karen Swenson, Richard Larsen, route 1, Larsen; William Nolte, route 4, Oshkosh; Sharon Marx, route 2, Oshkosh; and Diana Lehl, route 2, Neenah, as home grounds winners. Named as honor roll clubs were B-Square, Buttons and Bows, Enterprise, Fair and Square, Gillingham Girls, Howlett Hustlers, Friendly Workers, Mathison, Mears, Rippling Brook, Smile A While, United Utica, Wolf River and Zion 3-C. Accordion selections were played by Ronald and Darrell Koplitz, Howlett Hustlers club. Project Chairman Neenah — Mrs. George Banta III was named chairman of the Christmas service project of Neenah - Menasha Emergency, Society, Inc. rather than chairman of Christmas giving committee, a division of community council, as listed in Tuesday's Post-Crescent.

Neenah Adds 5 Acres Near New Foundry

Annexes Property Along Railroad; Street Vacated

Neenah — Five acres along the Chicago and North Western track and south of the new Neenah Foundry company construction were annexed into the city by the council Wednesday night.

The council also accepted a deed from the Foundry company for a 40-foot strip extending south from Marathon street for 1,082 feet. The property is to be used for road-way purposes and will be known as Aylward street.

Joseph avenue which is parallel to and adjoins Green Bay road was ordered vacated by the council and the 60-foot strip will go to the adjoining property owners. A hearing on the vacating preceded the council meeting.

A deed for an alleyway in the area of the new Admiral apartment buildings at Cecil and Congress streets was accepted by the council. The 24-foot wide alleyway will be known as Admiral drive.

Parochial Children Get Further Tests For Faulty Vision

Menasha — Parochial grade school children, referred for further vision tests, have been rechecked by volunteers, Miss Alice Dillon, city nurse, announced Wednesday.

In each case, teachers will discuss the need for eye examinations with parents at parent-teacher conferences. Miss Dillon's program has been in Bethel Lutheran and St. Mary schools.

Failure to read eye charts does not mean a child needs glasses, she said. But it does mean he should have his eyes checked.

Schools, she said, keep year-to-year records of children's health. As city nurse, Miss Dillon will help in counseling students, parents and school personnel. She also will be a link joining home, school and community agencies.

resulting from the car striking a hole in the road.

A hearing was set for Nov. 18 on the petition of residents in the 500 block on S. Commercial street for rezoning from multiple family to local shopping. The property is on the east side of the street.

Council members and city officials and their wives received an invitation to attend a reception Nov. 15 from 3 to 5 p.m. for the new librarian and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kunert.

The council also approved a resolution for the grading and graveling of Pembroke drive north of Surrey lane which will be charged back to the developer of the property on a 100 per cent assessment.

Arbitrator Says Firing Unjustified

Other Discharge For Neenah Foundry By 'Just Cause'

Neenah — Discharge of one employe of Neenah Foundry company has been upheld and another one's dismissal was denied by a Wisconsin Employment Relations board arbitrator.

The two discharge cases were submitted to Edwin E. Witte, Madison, by the company and local 121, International Molders' and Foundry Workers' Union of North America.

Arbitrator Witte, retired professor emeritus of the University of Wisconsin, is an expert on government and labor.

Witte upheld the foundry's dismissal of one man on the grounds that his "unsatisfactory production record constituted 'just cause' for his discharge on June 15, 1959."

The arbitrator ruled the discharge of a core hauler who also was a union official, was not for "just cause." The worker walked off his job July 30 when he saw a temporary air-operated core hoist still was in use three days after the hoist's electric motor burned out.

The next morning, he returned to work and found he had been discharged. He filed a grievance, seeking reinstatement with continued seniority and back pay for the time lost. He was upheld.

The company based its discharge on the contention he had quit his job, left without permission and was "insubordinate." Witte concluded the worker did not intend to quit his job, was not insubordinate and that he had the right, as an individual and as union president, to complain of the safety hazard.

Menashan Fined $50 On Speeding Charge

Oshkosh — Wallace C. Willes, 18, of 836 Warsaw street, Menasha, was fined $50 and costs by Municipal Judge S. J. Luchinger this morning after pleading guilty to a speeding charge. Six points were charged to Willes' driving record.

He was arrested Oct. 22 on Highway 47 in the town of Menasha after police clocked him going 65 miles per hour in a 45 mile zone.

A Model of the Downtown section of Menasha illustrates the social studies unit on the community in Mrs. Marion Kemmetter's combined third-fourth grade at Butte des Morts school. Cathy McCune, right, guided a double-deck bus around the Main-Racine streets corner. David Swoboda made the fire station and brought the fire truck, Georgia Shaw made a gift store.

Appleton Youth Fined $25, Costs After Chase

Menasha — Clocking at speeds up to 50 m.p.h. on city streets, Joseph S. Van Schyndel, 19, 708 Durkee street, Appleton, was fined $25 and costs Wednesday by Police Justice Arthur J. Ales.

Van Schyndel's car, police said, began evading the pursuing police car on Tayco street, went east on Broad, north on Milwaukee to the alley running past the city garage, through its parking lot and north on Racine street. He was arrested at 8:30 p.m. Monday.

Two other speeders forfeited $10 and costs each in Ales' court today. They are Richard Gosz, 30, 1225 S. Jefferson street, Appleton, clocked at 40 m.p.h. on Plank road early Tuesday; and Michael H. Lattimer, 26, 722 1/2 Lawe street, Kaukauna, 40 m.p.h. on Plank road last Wednesday.

Duane Fitzpatrick, 41, 520 N. Clark street, Appleton, pleaded guilty to two charges, paying a total of $14 fines and costs. He admitted driving without an operator's permit and making an illegal left turn off Tayco street east on to Main street Sunday night.

Twin City Cagers Eye Berths on OSC Squad

Dibelius One of Five Returning Lettermen; Titans Open Schedule Against St. Norbert

Oshkosh — Several former major letterman last year, Twin City high school players didn't return to school and is plus other boys who saw prep action with area squads are among the basketball candidates at Oshkosh State college.

Heading the list is Ron Dibelius, who led the team in scoring although he saw action only in the last few first semester games and in the first couple of the second semester last year. His eligibility had been questioned because he left school for baseball training camp in midsemester.

Other lettermen are Jim Davis, Mike Grabner, "Whit-ez" Kaufmann and Jim Lettenberger, all of Oshkosh. Bob Karisny of Menasha, a letterman two years ago, also has reported.

Others who were on the team last year but didn't see enough action to earn a major award include Jerry Koslowski and Gordy Selbach, Menasha; Roger Bartel, Oconto; Cameron Gorges, New London; Dennis Sommers, Hortonville; and Pat Trudel, Oconto Falls.

Assistant Nurse Job Abolished

Oshkosh — Rural Winnebago county supervisors Wednesday rescinded earlier authorization for an assistant county nurse.

The measure had passed 8 to 7 Tuesday but was rescinded, 14 to 5, Franklin Neusch fer requested the reconsideration because the vote was so close and five rural members were absent for the first vote. Had the authorization remained, a $4,520 a year job with $400 travel allowance would be in the 1960 budget. The figure, along with $367 for desks and chairs for the nurse, was stricken.

Kuchan Fires 602 Series

Walbrun Powers 232 Loner; Patri Tops 'Commercial'

Menasha — A 602 triple by John Kuchan and Harvey Walbrun's 232 single were the peak totals in the Business Men's Bowling league Wednesday night at the Mid-Town alleys.

Walbrun closed with 584 pins for his three games while Kuchan included an honor in game-of 223 in his high trio.

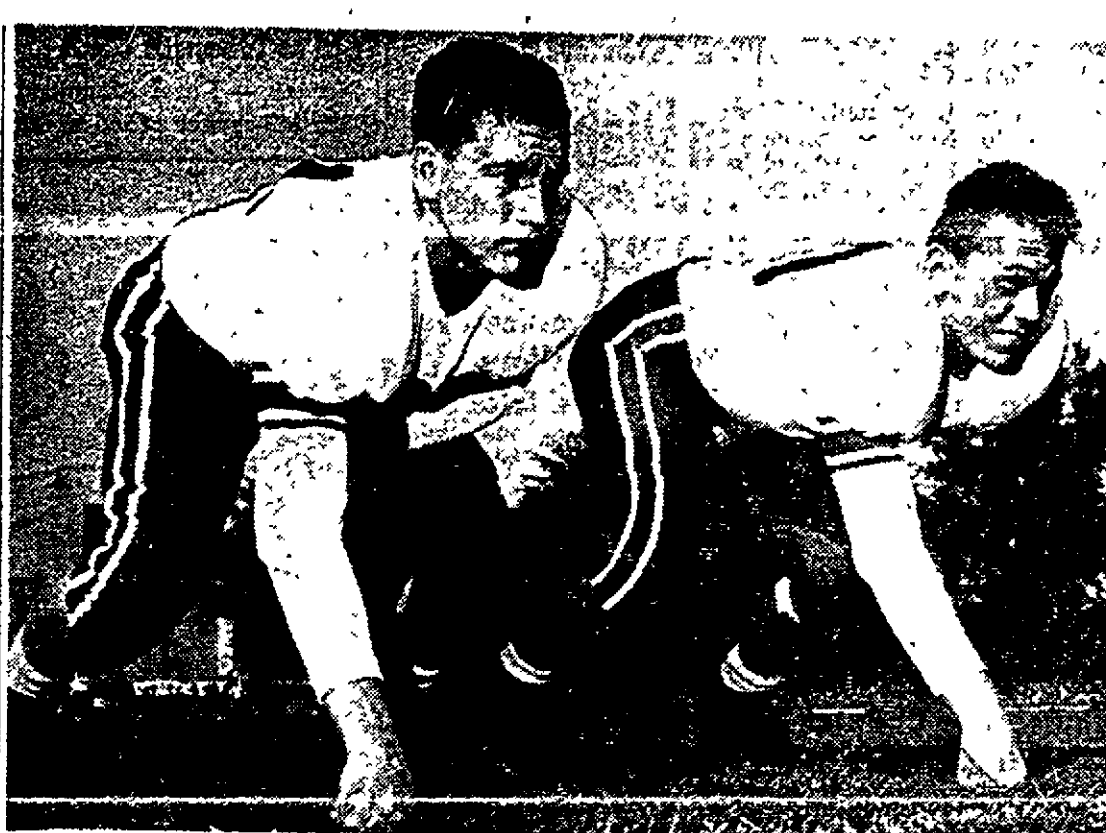

Other honor scores included Art Brazee 586, Harold Becker, 584, Irv Peterson 570 and "Hezzie" Lang 559.

The tight championship race shows Valley Refrigeration and Olson Transportation tied for first place with 17-10 records. Two more teams are just a half game out and the eighth place is just three lines away.

Marv Patri's 573 series led the way in the Uptown Commercial league Wednesday night at Mid-Town.

Other honor scores included 569 efforts by Frank Heller and Ben Graves, "Mickey" Reiter 562 and "Woody" Burden 550.

Club Terrace (201-64) is in first place by a full game.

Zuelke Hammers 287-699 Efforts In Classic Wheel

Sturges Crashes Runnerup 674; Moore Jars 642 Triple

Neenah — Arnie Zuelke was just one pin shy of his second national honor count with a 699 in the Fox Valley Classic Bowling league Wednesday night at Lakewood Lanes.

Zuelke

The 699, exceeded only this year by Zuelke's 719 and a 710 by Bob Hogan, included a 287 game, the year's best.

The previous peak was Bernie Davis' 279. Zuelke bowls for the first place Jessup Realtors team.

Jack Sturges clouted a giant-sized runnerup score of 674, with games of 257 and 231. Wally Moore had a 642 trio and Davis collected 630 with a 237 single.

Other 600-plus totals included Jim Kluba and Elmer Schultz 624, Harvey Badtke 621, "Rusty" Schreiber 235-607, "Buck" Jones and Ormie Stach 607 and "Mac" McKinnon 604.

Other Honor Scores

Bob Yakes rolled 596, "Doc" Roberts 595, Jim Haack 591, Denny Bahcall 590, Paul Schaefer 588, "Ham" Koerwitz 584, Irv Hall 583, Bob Fredericks 580, Armin Ott 579, "Husky" Nagreen and Ray Rehbein 578, Erv Kuchenecker 571, Dave Sears 568 and Rod Kiefer 562.

Kiefer's jolted a 1,028 game and 2,902 series for the best team scores. Jessup Realty (23-4) has moved into a 5-game lead.

Earl Thorne bowled a 583 triple to pace the Sportsmen's league Wednesday night at Lakewood. The Yellow Jacket (20-7) is the leader by four games.

Reschedule Menasha Game for Saturday

Menasha — Menasha's Mid-Eastern conference finale at New London, postponed Wednesday afternoon because of inclement weather, has been rescheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

Women's league Wednesday night at Lakewood. Marten's Dairy (201-64) leads by 51 games.

Joann Bauer of the Teitz Insurance team blasted a 201 game and 524 set in the Tuesday night Lakewood Ladies Handicap wheel.

Millie Torsrud had 504, Almeda Klutz 195 and Darlene Homan 192. Larson Paint and Wanserski's are tied for first place with 16-8 records.

Honors in the Wednesday afternoon More Fun Ladies league at Lakewood went to Bonnie Borchert for her 504 series and Laura Lehl with a 204 singleton.

The standings show Badger Oil still in first place by one game with its 18-6 record.

Millie Brecklin Bowls 538 Trio In City League

Neenah — Millie Brecklin rolled a 538 series, including a 205 game, for the high totals in the Neenah Women's City league Wednesday night at Muench's Recreation alleys.

Ethel Redlin posted 190-529, Betty Clow 197 and Percy Resch 193 for other honor scores.

Larson - Schreiter and Curly's are knotted for first place with 17-7 records. Their margin is three games.

Don Christensen's 562 series topped the Commercial league Wednesday night at Muench's.

Holz Sewing Center (18-6) is the first place team by a 31-game margin.

Weren't Too Happy About 1st Half Play; NHS Coach Reports

Neenah — "We weren't too happy about our play in the first half of Saturday's Menasha game," Coach Marlon Batterman told the Neenah Quarterback club at Wednesday night's session at the high school activities room.

The coach declared that Neenah was caught short by a team better prepared mentally and that the fumble on the kickoff, which set up Menasha's score, may have been one of the factors in a "flat" first quarter.

Batterman explained that Neenah came back at the half with more enthusiasm and desire which carried it through. He said he platonized his backfield which may have been one of the factors in helping wear down the opponent.

Shawano a Surprise

Neenah's mentor said Menasha resorted to real good football when it ran from punt formation and that the Jays had everything to gain and nothing to lose in the game while Neenah had everything to lose.

As for Saturday's game, the coach stated that Shawano has a real fine ball club, one which has surprised everyone in the conference. He said they like to hit and have a good passer in Krenger. Batterman explained that he is hoping for sunshine for a change. The games have been played in the rain or on muddy fields most of the season.

Next week's meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Whiting bathhouse. Because the coaches will be unable to attend, the co-captains, who will be chosen Monday, will be on hand to narrate the Neenah-Shawano film.

Slated to See Action at a halfback post for Neenah in Saturday's game against Shawano is George Goetz, a junior letterman, who is one of the fastest boys on the team.

Nelson Scores 27 Points; Kersten, Martin Injured

Brillion — St. John Holy Name squared its basketball record a 1-1 by defeating Brillion of the Eastern Wisconsin Amateur league 86-64 here Wednesday night.

In achieving the win, the Menashans lost two players on injuries. Tom Martin sprained his ankle with a minute gone in the second period and Bob Kersten suffered a similar mishap in the early minutes of the third frame.

St. John led 21-12 at the close of a quarter and 49-29 at halftime. Its margin was 63-54 at the close of three segments.

Don Nelson paced the winning attack with 27 points on 13 baskets and a free throw. Bob Prange added 20 and "Doc" Kramer tallied 18. Harold Edinger picked up 23 to lead the Brillion attack.

The Menasha squad will make its next start at home Saturday night with New London supplying the opposition.

The box score:

St. John	FG FT F	Brillion	FG FT F
Nelson	13 20 2	D. Edinger	5 20 2
Prange	10 10 4	Bohman	2 3 4

into a 6-game advantage in the team standings.

No honor counts came out of the Banta Men's circuit Wednesday night at the Recreation Lanes. Offset Press (14-7) lost three games and finds its lead narrowed to one line.

Klapper Leads Scorers on MHS Freshman Team

Menasha — Bob Klapper, a halfback, led the Menasha freshman football scorers with 18 points. He made the three touchdowns in the final game against Kimberly.

Halfback Rocky Gmeiner and fullback John Maciejewski each scored seven points and Dennis Doverspike had one.

The Bluejays posted a 2-3 record, moving up a couple of notches in the standings after their winless mark of a year ago. They beat Wilson and Kimberly and lost to Neenah, Kaukauna and champion Roosevelt 13-0 after holding the Appleton entry scoreless at halftime.

Bell Vetoes Removal of County Trunk

Technicality in Resolution Cited; Idea Not Opposed

Neenah — More because of a technicality in the resolution rather than objection to the principal, Mayor Bell vetoed the council Wednesday night he had vetoed the action taken at the Oct. 21 meeting to remove S. Commercial street from the county trunk system after reconstruction work is complete.

The council upheld his veto and referred the matter to the board of public works which will bring in a corrected resolution at the next council meeting.

The previous resolution provided that S. Commercial street be removed from the county trunk system for its length within the city limits. The new resolution is expected to provide for removal of the county trunk from that point in the city from which the construction begins.

The city limits is down the center of the street, which is County Trunk A from Peckham street south to below Alcott drive with the east half of the road being in the city and the west half in the town of Neenah.

It was his veto the mayor wrote, "It was my understanding that the street is not to be improved to the southern limits of the city but only to a point determined in accordance with the state's formula."

"Therefore, that portion of the street lying south of the point at which the improvement begins should remain on the county trunk system."

The reconstruction of S. Commercial street will begin at a point 474 feet south of Peckham street. The recent resurfacing of S. Commercial street — the County Trunk A

Rejects Expansion Of Fresh Air Camp

Request to Consider Acquiring More Property Defeated 8 to 2

Neenah — Purchase of additional land adjoining the fresh air camp property owned by the city along Lake Winnebago south of the city was defeated by a 2 to 8 vote of the council Wednesday night.

The two affirmative votes were those of Ald. Carl Coenen and Harold Young.

Young, reporting for the plans commission, said the commission had considered the request of the park board for additional park properties and was recommending that the council look into acquiring additional land there for future use. He moved that the finance committee look into the possibility but his motion was defeated.

Costs Too High Ald. Warren Sanders replied the matter had been looked into previously and the cost to acquire and maintain was felt to be excessive for the property to be secured.

Dinius reported that the arrangement for the snowplowing and maintenance of Green Bay road, the old Highway 41, had been arranged with county crews doing the snowplowing and each of the units taking care of its own maintenance.

Green Bay road lies within the city of Neenah and the towns of Neenah and Menasha. The city of Neenah will

Winneconne Chapter Gets 3 Invitations

Winneconne — Three invitations were received by the Order of Eastern Star chapter at its meeting Tuesday night. They were to attend a "Winneconne Night" meeting of the Job's Daughters of Oshkosh at 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

A memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Earl Calkins, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wirth, the worthy patron and matron; Mrs. Verna Clark, associate matron; and Orrin Uvaas, chaplain. The refreshment committee included Mr. and Mrs. Calkins, Mrs. Myrtle Zimmerman and Ralph Zehner.

pay 24 per cent of the snow plowing cost, the town of Neenah 25 per cent and the town of Menasha 51 per cent.

Installation of five street lights on Marathon street and one on Byrd avenue near the Marathon division office as well as one at the corner of Spruce and Walnut streets was authorized.

The contract for installation of water main in an area on Grove street was granted to George Ehlenberger, Oshkosh, his low bid of $4,985.

4 Sessions On Diabetes At Hospital

Class Organized To Help Follow Physicians' Orders

Neenah — How to follow their physicians' diet instructions will be told diabetes patients at an instruction clinic which will open Monday at Theda Clark Memorial hospital.

The clinic was organized because many diabetes patients fail to carry out their diets after returning home from hospital stays. While hospitalized, diets are controlled.

Dr. Richard Jensen, chairman of the internal medicine department at Theda Clark, said failure to follow diet and other rules for diabetes can lead to amputation of limbs, coma and even death.

The program, which consists of four lecture courses, will begin next Monday and will be for all diabetics in the area whose doctors refer them to the Theda Clark Memorial hospital study sessions. These study sessions will be from 2 to 3 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and the following Monday.

A new study session will be offered alternate weeks. A patient may start instructions with any one of the 4-lesson periods.

Bring Relatives Dr. Jensen said he hopes each diabetes patient will bring a relative to the clinics, so that someone in the family besides the patient will know the seriousness of the situation.

Each class session will be shown a 10-minute film on some phase of diabetes and its treatment, and questions of those attending the sessions will be answered.

The clinic, under the direction of the internal medicine department of the hospital, will be given to inpatients as well as outpatients. There will be demonstrations and lectures by the dieticians and nursing staff of the hospital and physicians.

Dr. Jensen said not all diabetes patients must take daily insulin shots; that many can be controlled by oral tablets and proper diet; and that the clinic to open next week will put special emphasis on these points.

He said most success with the oral tablet is in patients over 40 with relatively mild diabetes. Young patients with severe diabetes usually cannot use the tablets, Dr. Jensen said, and some of his patients who have tried the tablets have developed enough tolerance for them after a while so that they have needed to shift back to injections for complete control.

For those who must use needles at home, the upcoming clinic at Theda Clark Memorial Hospital will give a do-it-yourself course in how to sharpen needles.

Butte des Morts Land Made Public Grounds

Oshkosh — Some 476.97 acres of water area in Lake Butte des Morts was placed under control of the Winnebago county conservation and park committee by the board of supervisors here Wednesday.

The land, on which the county holds tax title, is to be used as a public hunting and fishing area. Residents in the village of Butte des Morts had earlier requested such action.

The acreage in the town of Winneconne was acquired by the county by tax deed in 1953.

Teachers on Hand To Discuss Pupils, Display Building

Plans are being made at Appleton High school for the annual go-to-school night for parents. This year there will be two nights to facilitate parents' seeing all teachers. Parents whose children fall alphabetically in the A to L group are invited to the annual open house at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 10. The second open house will be for parents of students from M to Z.

The first of the go-to-school nights will fall during American Education week, being observed Nov. 8 to 14. Theme for the week is "Praise and Appraise Your Schools."

Teachers in Rooms
All AHS teachers will be in their rooms to meet with parents, AHS has many "floaters" teachers, but each will be assigned a specific place where conferences may be held. The Early American room will be reserved for lounging.
Students in homerooms on Monday will fill out class schedule cards and indicate where teachers will be. These cards are being made to help parents follow the schedules of their sons and daughters. Invitations to all parents will be handled through the homerooms. Students from the Ushers club will be on hand both evenings to assist visitors.

Set Meeting on Plug Company's Bridge Question

A meeting to determine how much of the west end of the John street bridge should be rebuilt after it is torn down was scheduled Tuesday between owners of Badger Plug company, 930 E. John street, and the council's board of public works.
State engineers have advised the city the state will remove all of the old low level span, starting probably in December.

Badger Plug has protested that it needs part of the bridge to permit trucks to back up into its river-front building.
Board members Tuesday were split on whether the city should pay all, part or none of the cost of rebuilding enough street surface to serve the company.
Western Condensing company officials have informed the city they will protest paying any share toward the project.

ke makes payments of $10 a week to his family. Loerke was charged with failing to provide support for his wife and five minor children.

Radio Change To Cost County $3,450 in 1960

Conversion of the county's police radio system to conform with a federal communications commission order will cost $3,450 and Outagamie supervisors have added it to the 1960 budget.

The conversion must be done by August of next year, George Merk, county radio technician, told the board. The conversion is to a split channel operation, through which the FCC doubled the available frequency modulation channels available to police and private radio stations.

The conversion will cost the county $1,950 for a base station (near the county hospital), $900 for converting the 30 mobile and fixed stations and $600 for labor involved.

The change will not affect the proposed 2-way highway department radio system approved for next year, because it will be installed under the new regulation.

Record Enrollment

Washington — An estimated 5,138,000 pupils are enrolled in Roman Catholic grade and high schools, a new record. The parochial school enrollment accounts for about 12.5 per cent of all elementary and high school pupils in the country.

Oneidas Set Meeting to Hear Report

Representatives To Tell of Work At Claims Hearing

Oneida— First hand reports on the Oneida Indian tribe's hearings before the Indian claims commission in Washington, D. C., this week will be presented at a meeting at the Holy Apostles Episcopal parish house at 7 p. m. Saturday.

Oscar H. Archquette, Milwaukee, a former member of the tribe's executive committee, and the Rev. G. Coyer Brittain, Holy Apostles rector, attended the hearings Monday and Tuesday.

The Oneidas and Stockbridge-Munsee tribes are seeking a cash settlement for 3,931,000 acres, most of the eastern quarter of Wisconsin.

This week the tribes, through their attorneys, appeared at hearings to try to establish a fair price for the land for which the commission has ruled the government must pay.

Seek $1.25 An Acre Attorneys for the tribes are seeking a price of $1.25 an acre, the price at which much of it was sold for to homesteaders and settlers.

Government attorneys contend 550,000 acres should not be included and that certain "offsets," money paid the Indians in the past, should be deducted.

The hearings are being held in a small room in the General Accounting office building, with only two members of the commission present, William H. Holt, and former Sen. Arthur V. Watkins of Utah.

Dr. Robert W. Finley, associate professor of geography at the University of Wisconsin recently assigned to the Green Bay extension center, was chief witness for the tribes.

His testimony on the geography and climate of the area lasted two days in the leisurely-conducted hearings.

If the hearings develop a continuing dispute over the settlement, the case will be appealed to the claims court and perhaps on to the supreme court.

Although the machinery of government is grinding toward a settlement, it is not likely the 3,612 enrolled Oneidas and the 510 Stockbridge-Munsee Indians will receive any money for some time.

Councilmen Refuse Money For Planner

Statements of Some Indicate Matter Will Be Studied Further

The city council Wednesday rejected a suggestion to appropriate money in the 1960 budget to hire a city planner.

Some aldermen indicated that while they opposed the expenditure they would like to see the idea explored further.

City Atty. Jury, who suggested establishing a city planning office, said he was motivated by a desire to ease the non-engineering load placed on the city engineering department and to assure a tie-in with the proposed regional plan.

Help Annexations "It seems to me," he said, "that the only way to make the regional plan work is to have a man on the ground floor."

The planner also could serve to help the city in annexations matters, Jury said, since the sewer expansion and other plans are surely going to make the city interested in taking advantage of the new law permitting cities to initiate annexations.

One alderman asked how addition of a planner could be justified in light of the refusal to hire an accountant-controller.

Why Now? "We have adequate accounting," said Jury.

"No, we don't," said the alderman.

"That's your opinion," answered Jury.

"That's right," said the alderman.

Another alderman asked why hiring a city planner was not mentioned when the commitment to regional planning was approved.

Who Pays? Later, the same alderman said there are a great many projects which have merit, but the question is, "Who will pay?"

Still another alderman pointed out that the public works budgets this year are proposed to provide an assistant to Director of Public Works Duszynski, and the assistant can be expected to help considerably.

When the vote was over several aldermen wanted assurance that the issue is not dead, that it will be studied further. One of them was told to introduce a resolution to bring the matter back before the board of public works.

Today's Deaths

Josephine McCauley

Mrs. Josephine Pennings McCauley, 62, of 739 E. Washington street, died at 6:45 a.m. today after a 4-month illness.

Friends may call at the Borchardt and Moder Funeral home, Hortonville, after 2 p.m. today, where the rosary will be said at 8 p.m. today.

Daufen's name was misspelled Dausen in Wednesday's Post-Crescent.

Alderman Asks Money to Open Franklin St.

Ald. Al. H. Stoegbauer Wednesday called for inclusion of money in the 1960 budget for opening Franklin street across the Packard street dump.

Answers to two questions must be found before the city can proceed with the estimated $180,000 project, Stoegbauer was told.

The questions are: How much land is needed?; What use will be made of the land purchased?

One alderman reported that Director of Public Works Duszynski has a map of the land he thinks the city ought to buy, but the board of public works is still studying it.

It also was said the land Duszynski shows for purchase could provide space for parking of between 600 and 650 cars.

Stoegbauer said his anxiety stems from the fact that the new high level bridge will be opened this year or early next year and College avenue will be taking added traffic. A relief street is needed, he indicated.

Shiocton — Sen. William Proxmire will address students and faculty at the high school here at 10 a.m. Monday on the role of students in America. The public is invited to the speech, which is one of several such engagements throughout the state.

Proxmire also is scheduled to speak in Appleton Nov. 18 and at Appleton and Hortonville schools Nov. 30.

Mrs. Emma Rector, Widow of Doctor, Dies in Evanston

Mrs. Emma Morse Rector, 87, Evanston, Ill., an Appleton resident until four years ago, died in Evanston Wednesday after a long illness.

She was born Sept. 15, 1872, and taught school in Wisconsin before she married Dr. E. A. Rector, an Appleton eye, ear, nose and throat specialist. Mrs. Rector was a charter member of the Appleton chapter of the BPEO sisterhood, and was state president of the group from 1925 to 1926. She also was a member of the Eastern Star and of the First Methodist church.

A memorial service will be at 2 p.m. Friday in the chapel of the First Methodist church, with burial in Riverside cemetery. Friends may call at the Brettschneider Funeral home after 10 a.m. Friday until noon.

Survivors include two sons, A. Clayton Rector, Evanston, and Fredrick E. Rector, Grosse Pointe Woods, Mich., and three grandchildren.

West Bend Votes To Resume Using Fluoride in Water

West Bend — West Bend residents voted Tuesday, by a slim 1,377 to 1,276 margin, down last spring. The referendum to restore fluoridation to their city water supply. The issue was the only one on the ballot.

The city had added fluoride to its water for nine years until mixing equipment broke a slim 1,377 to 1,276 margin, down last spring. The referendum was advisory.

Aldermen Propose 11-Cent Tax Hike

Up Committee's Draft $38,600;
Public Hearing Slated Nov. 18

Appleton aldermen Wednesday adopted a tentative city purposes-only budget that requires a real estate and personal property tax rate increase of 11 cents a $1,000 of assessed value.

A public hearing on their proposals — last hurdle to final adoption—is scheduled at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 18, in the council chambers.

Total recommended spending going into the public hearing is $6,826,754. The amount to be raised by taxation is $4,006,679. Other incomes are estimated at $2,820,075.

The council's 1960 budget committee recommended a 9-cent cut in rate, but aldermen in a midnight session Wednesday added $38,600 to spending and $15,198 to other-than-tax incomes.

Yet to come are tax demands of Outagamie and Calumet counties and the state of Wisconsin. These will not affect the proposed 11-cent increase for city-only taxation, but may send overall tax rate increases for Outagamie and Calumet sections higher than 14 cents per $1,000 assessed value.

The $38,600 in spending added Wednesday was earmarked this way:

$25,000 to pay an estimated six months' interest on the new Edison school, south side swimming pool and police station addition bond issues.

$12,000 to buy, if available, a site for Interlake park's lighted softball field, which will give way to the new pool.

$750 to pay for demolition of buildings on the S. Perkins street industrial park site.

$650 to help the Little League upgrade caliber of umpires at 144 games next year in its own league and the connected Babe Ruth league.

Sherwood Store Changes Hands; Expansion Seen

Henry St. Louis,
New London, Buys
Maurer Brothers Unit

Sherwood — The Maurer Brothers general store has changed hands and the new owner has plans for expansion of the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry St. Louis, New London, took possession of the landmark establishment in the center of the village Friday. The transfer ended a Maurer family business regime there that started in 1907.

St. Louis operated a grocery store in New London for nine years. He moved to New London from Appleton.

Plans for Store He said he planned to grocery department and is planning to enlarge and modernize the clothing and shoe department.

According to transfer tax stamps on the deed, the brick store building and attached 9-room house was purchased for $24,000, not including the stock.

The store had been operated by the widows and sons of the Maurer brothers.

Casts Only Ballot In Assembly District

New York—Milton Wallach's vote Tuesday was a mighty important — and expensive — one. In fact, it was the only one in the Second district of the Fifth assembly district.

Officially, there are 299 registered voters on the books of the district but 295 have moved because buildings are being torn down to make way for the new Lincoln Square housing development. This is in the area of Amsterdam avenue and 68th street.

Officials estimated it cost $200 to record the Democratic vote of Wallach, Superintendent of an almost empty apartment building still standing.

Thursday, Nov. 5, 1959 Appleton Post-Crescent B11

It was Outagamie County Clerk Mollie E. Pfeffer's birthday anniversary Tuesday, and the board serenaded her with "Happy Birthday" to the accompaniment of her cries, "39 today, 39 today." She also got a plant for her desk from fellow employees.

It must be habit, because Appleton Supv. Mark Catlin addressed the Outagamie county board about a raise for the county and municipal judges by saying, "May it please the court." Catlin, an attorney explained, "I saw the judges and just automatically started."

County Union Asks Job Study, Pay Hikes

5-Cents Hourly
Highway Workers

Members of the Outagamie County Highway Department Local 455 of the municipal workers union have asked the county board for a job re-evaluation and raises ranging up to 38 cents an hour. The board sent the request back to the highway committee, with which the union has been negotiating most of this year, after agreeing with the committee on an across-the-board 5-cent hourly increase for all highway workers.

The increase will cost the county an estimated $11,000 a year, but will not increase the total budget. The increase will be absorbed by the existing highway budget, which takes $445,837 from the tax levy.

Robert Swanson, business agent for the union, told the board that highway department workers are dissatisfied with the spread between wages paid unskilled workers and skilled machinery operators and other skilled workers. The present wage differential is about 39 cents an hour and the union asks a 65-cent spread. Swanson admitted the request for raises ranging from 12 cents an hour for unskilled workers to 38 cents an hour for skilled men was a basis for negotiations, not a final union demand.

Incentive Plan He termed the change in pay range a proposal to create

CBS and NBC Say People Want TV Quiz Shows

New York—CBS and NBC report mail and telegram sentiment in favor of continuance of television quiz shows.

The correspondence also has brought expressions of affection for Charles Van Doren, the admittedly coached TV star. The bulk of it was received by Dave Garroway's "Today" show, where Van Doren was a commentator until ousted by NBC.

CBS and NBC, the networks which nurtured and nipped the TV quiz boom, said today that communications about TV quiz programs generally was streaming in, too fast for complete tabulation.

NBC, reporting on a tally of its latest 625 letters, said 468 favored continuation of the quiz shows, 129 were critical of such entertainment, and 28 were undetermined.

A CBS spokesman said: "A large majority of the mail favors continuation of this type of show. They enjoy them, and would like to see them kept on the air, if there is some way of doing it."

skilled labor in the highway department by offering workers an incentive to try for better jobs. He said the wage increase was not the point at issue.

Asked what the union would do if the board offered it the 5-cent raise, Swanson said the union would like to negotiate through differential and the increase, then come before the board in December.

'All Chiefs' Osborn Supv. Edward Peotter, chairman of the highway committee, commented that the union plan seemed to result in "all chiefs and no Indians." He added that the committee was unable to work out the differentials because highway department workers may do several different jobs, especially during summer construction months, making classification difficult.

Swanson commented that Wednesday was the first indication the union had that the highway committee was willing to talk about the pay differential.

Appleton Supv. Sylvester Esler declared the committee ought to consider the wage spread and work toward such an idea, but the proposal was too complicated to come before the board now and probably would take a year or more to work out.

Organist, Other Artists to Perform In Sunday Recital

A recital featuring organist LaVahn Maesch and several chamber music groups will be given at 4 p.m. Sunday in Harper hall as part of the Music - Drama center Festival year at Lawrence college.

Besides Maesch, who is director of the Lawrence conservatory, performers will be Inge Weiss, soprano; Carole Wang Schroeder, flute; Marion Wolfe Ming, violoncello; Kenneth Byler, violin; and Lucy Baicher, Heiberg, violin; all members of the conservatory faculty; and Mrs. Frances Rehl, 218 N. Lawe street, violoncello; Karl Sager, 620 E. North street, violin; Mrs. Jeanette Given, 1522 W. Prospect avenue, violin; Mrs. Lucille Orblison, 120 Riverview court, violin; and Kenneth Mumme, 949 Hunt street, Neenah, bassoon.

Maesch, professor of organ and choral music, has been a student of Palmer Christian, Abel Decaux, and Marcel Dupre. He has been a teaching fellow at the University of Rochester, professor of organ and church music at Montana State university, visiting professor of church music and director of the university choir at the University of Southern California, and director of the church music institute at the University of Idaho. He is regional chairman of the American Guild of Organists, past president of the Wisconsin Music Teachers association, and Pi Kappa Lambda music honorary society, as well as national president of the Music Teachers National association.

Miss Weiss, instructor in voice, received her music degree from Northwestern university and her master's from the University of Illinois. She has also studied at the Vienna academy in Austria, the Aspen, Colo. summer music school, and the Berkshire music festival in Tanglewood, Mass.

Mrs. Schroeder received her music degree from Lawrence, and has studied with Marcel Moyse and James Ming. She is a member of Pi Kappa Lambda music honorary and Sigma Alpha Iota.

Mrs. Ming, lecturer in cello, has taught at Baylor university, Kansas State Teachers college, the Universities of Nebraska and Montana, De Pauw university, and Washington State college. She received her degrees from the University of Rochester. She has played in the Buffalo, N. Y., String Quartet; the Ming-Leedham trio in Appleton; and with symphony orchestras in Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas; and Lincoln, Neb.; as well as performing as a soloist with the Rochester, N. Y., Civic orchestra.

Kenneth Byler studied at the American Conservatory of Music, the University of Michigan, where he received his master's degree, and the Juillard School of Music. Associate professor of violin and director of the Lawrence Symphony orchestra, he previously taught at Kansas Wesleyan university and Kent State university. He is a member of Pi Kappa Lambda, the Music Teachers National association, the Wisconsin Music Teachers association, of which he is a past president, and the American String Teachers association. Each summer since 1933 he has been violinist in the Peninsula Music festival directed by Thor Johnson.

Chicago Debut

Mrs. Heiberg began studying violin with her father and made her debut with the Apollo Chamber Music by Ensembles of faculty and town musicians will be heard at 4 p.m. Sunday in Harper hall of the Lawrence Music-Drama center. It will inaugurate the new baroque organ in the hall. One of the groups to perform include from left 'cellist Marian Wolfe Ming; violinist Lucy Baicher Heiberg; flutist Carole Wang Schroeder; Soprano Inge Weiss; and organist LaVahn Maesch. A total of 10 musicians will appear in the concert, which is open to the public without admission charge.

Musical club of Chicago. Continuing her studies at the American Conservatory, she won scholarships to North Texas state college and Northwestern university. She has been concert master of the Chicago Civic orchestra and has played with the New Orleans symphony, the Chicago Grant Park symphony, and the St. Louis symphony.

Mrs. Rehl studied violoncello at Oberlin college and has played with the Great Neck, N. Y., symphony as well as orchestras in Stevens Point and Oshkosh. She also performs with the Lawrence college symphony and has taught cello at Washington State college.

Mrs. Given has participated in programs of the Appleton Symphony orchestra, the Green Bay Symphonette, and the Milwaukee Young People's orchestra. She also belongs to the local Wednesday Musicale group.

Sager has participated in the Valley Symphony orchestra and the Lawrence college group, as well as the Madison symphony and the University of Wisconsin orchestra. He has studied with Percy Fullinwider, late director of the Lawrence symphony and professor of violin.

Cleveland Groups

Mrs. Orblison played with music groups at the University of Wisconsin while a student there and with chamber music groups in Cleveland.

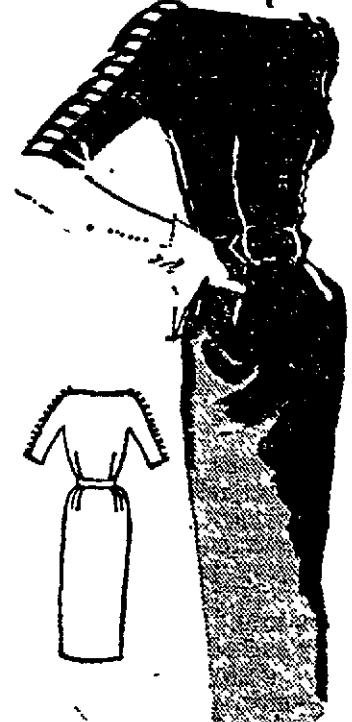

Mumme, a 1954 Lawrence graduate, studied bassoon at the conservatory with Fred Schroeder. He has since played with the college symphony and the Oshkosh Civic symphony, and has studied under Donald Moore at the University of Nebraska.

This recital, the second of the faculty series, is open to the public without admission charge.

Service Circle Plans Benefit Sale, Showing

Mrs. Edward Pfeifferle was named president-elect of the Service circle of the King's Daughters when the group met Monday evening at her home, 1619 S. Carver lane. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Armin Albrecht and Mrs. Richard Pfeifferle.

The fall rummage sale will be held Friday in the old Ideal Photo shop on E. College avenue and proceeds will be donated to a polio patient who is receiving treatment at Warm Springs, Ga.

Committee members for the sale are Mrs. George Theiss, chairman, Miss Effie Verbrick and Misses. Robert Rechner, Richard Pfeifferle, Clarence Kramlich, Frances Bloomer, Fred Eustice, Steve Konz and Frank Manier.

Miss Verbrick reported on the Halloween costume party given for the special education group of teenagers and the next canteen night will be Nov. 20 with Mrs. Kramlich as chairman.

Group Lists Future Plans

The wives of the Appleton Policemen's club met at the home of Mrs. Donald Paulie, 1924 S. Jackson street, Tuesday night. Mrs. Norbert Marx was co-hostess.

Plans were made for a Christmas party with a dinner at Alex's Supper club for Dec. 9. Mrs. David Karr is chairman of arrangements, with Mrs. Ervin Lietz co-chairman.

The next meeting will be Dec. 1 at the home of Mrs. Jerome Kavaney, 1527 N. Graceland avenue. Mrs. William Forster will be co-hostess.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Fete June Zimmer

Miss June Zimmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Zimmer, route 2, Hortonville, has been honored at several pre-nuptial parties before her Saturday marriage to Eugene A. Bruss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henoch Bruss, route 1, Fremont. The ceremony will be at 2:30 p.m. at Emmanuel Evangelical Lutheran church, Greenville.

On Sept. 28 Miss Judy Wunderlich and her mother, Mrs. Ora Wunderlich, were hostesses at a shower at their Hortonville home and on Oct. 5 Miss Zimmer's sisters, Audrey and Ruth Ann, were co-hostesses at a shower at the home of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Arlo Tellock, Mrs. Willis Becker, Mrs. Bruce Steinacker and Mrs. Eldred Tellock were hostesses at a recent pre-nuptial party at the home of the latter for about 25 guests.

Sisters of the bridegroom-to-be, Miss Cathy Bruss and Mrs. James Cuff, entertained at a party Oct. 15 at the home of their parents. About 15 guests attended.

Predict 'Curvy Coif' For 1960 Hairstyles

What hairstyles will make 1960 headlines? Now's the time to take a preview peek into the streamlined sixties, just 'round the corner. According to the hair stylists, fall and winter fashions will take us back three decades to the "borrowed-from-the-boys" era best illustrated by those well-tailored movie favorites, Greta Garbo and Carole Lombard. Last year's tresses are replaced by trenchcoats; flower-sprigged veils are supplanted by mannish slouch hats; little girl frills are out and smart sophistication is in.

How will you wear your hair this fall? Longer, smoother and curvier, say the experts. Tresses will tumble from crown to nape in a smooth fluid arc, like an ocean wave as it breaks. Typical of this look is the "Curvy Coif"—one of the fashion's new favorites. Hair is smoothed gently across the crown, falling in wide wings of waves at the sides and turning up youthfully at the ends. Another oh-so-smooth version of this hairstyle features the center part from which the hair falls smoothly and is curled under in a smooth page-boy.

Whether you're wearing a slim walking suit in the young diplomat tradition or a décolletage ball gown, your hair will be neat and controlled, but never slick nor severe. A more dressy hairstyle for after-five fashions, is called "Gift Wrap." Hair can be of medium length or shorter; the trick is to give a lift to the top hair and "wrap" the sides smoothly about the ears.

Refined BB Look

France's kittenish Brigitte Bardot is also in view on the long-hair trail. The BB look is now refined for American fashion followers. Young beauties can still have flowing tresses, but the new effect goes the Bardot coif one better and makes it smooth, not shaggy. Called the "Bardette Bob," this adaptation rises over the brow, trails a few smooth tendrils, and falls to the shoulders loose and carefree. The important thing here, as in all other long-hair styles, is control. This is a carefully contrived look. The minute a long, smooth bob sprouts wisps and falls lank and lifeless, the look is gone, and young sophistication becomes adolescent untidiness.

The secret of each of these styles and their many variations, lies in careful styling, setting and permanenting. The new smooth controlled tresses call for body and lots of it. Longer hair can make setting a nightmare without that same hidden body. For these new styles, a permanent is as necessary for body and manageability as it is for the wave itself.

Plan Scandinavia Church Norwegian Smorgasbord

Scandinavia — Connoisseurs of Norwegian food will make their annual trek to Scandinavia Lutheran church Saturday where at 3 p.m. tables will groan under a display of lutefisk, lefse, Norwegian meatballs, Scandinavian pastries including sandbaks, rosettes and fattedgamb.

Mrs. Otto Gudmanson is the general chairman directing a veritable army of workers. While the menu will remain in its traditional flavorful shape, the supper will be brightened by waitresses wearing native costumes.

The costumes will be as authentic as possible, with the exception of the skirt lengths, which will be at more modern levels.

Helping Mrs. Gudmanson are Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs. Sylvan Gurholt in charge of meatballs; Mrs. Delmar Gurholt, lutefisk; Mrs. Gerhart Johnson, pasty; Mrs. Winfield Krostue, peeling potatoes; Mrs. Art Hanson, potato cooking; Mrs. Harvey Mork, salads; Mrs. Rex Dean, rutabagas; Mrs. Clarence Larson, kitchen; Mrs. Gertie Neperud, coffee; Mrs. Harry Rowe, dishwashing; Mrs. Chester Simonson, flowers; Mrs. Martin Holtebeck and Mrs. Sylvan Gurholt, hostesses; Mrs. Ernest Lutz, registration, and Clarence Trinrud and Clarence Blom, tickets.

Women's Group Holds Meeting

The Civil Air Patrol Cadet mothers met Tuesday evening at Franklin school to make final plans for a rummage sale to be held Nov. 14. Birthday gifts were presented to Mrs. Norbert Bloedorn and Mrs. Ruth Kaiser. The next meeting will be Dec. 1 at Franklin school.

A Lovelier You

By Mary Sue Miller

Teen Line-Up

How many times have you been told, Miss Teen, to stand up straight? When the admonition is directed your way, you had best not shrug it off. Droopy posture makes a shambles of the very assets a girl tries so hard to gain — a good figure, pretty clothes and a poised manner. On the other hand, good posture actually improves every facet of your appearance. It is also beneficial to your health, the basic stuff that life and looks are made of.

To achieve good posture, you must indeed stand up straight. But "straight" does not mean "ramrod"; it means gracefully erect. There is nothing artificial about it, either. It is carrying yourself with each part of the body in the proper position, just as nature intended. The line-up is this:

Center weight on balls of feet.

Bend knees a fraction.

Swivel hips under body.

Stretch waist out of hips.

As on a breath, elevate chest.

Relax shoulders; straighten them neither backward nor forward.

Lift neck out of shoulders, and hold chin parallel to floor.

Mother Is Right in This Case

BY EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: My boy friend's sister has a 2-year-old baby. She and her husband like to go out for an evening occasionally, but cannot always get a baby sitter. On several occasions my boy friend has volunteered to stay with the baby while they go out. He is going to baby sit for them next Saturday when they have an important dance to go to, and his sister has asked me to come over and keep him company. My mother thinks it would be improper for me to go and spend the evening in their house with him alone while they are out. Will you please tell me what you think?

Answer: Your mother is right. A 2-year-old baby can hardly be considered a chaperon.

Funeral Flowers

Dear Mrs. Post: After the funeral, I am told it will be proper to take some of the flowers to sick people. I don't think this would be right at all since the people who sent the flowers gave them in memory of the departed and to comfort the loved ones in their loss. But I am told it is an accepted practice.

Answer: When the interment takes place at too great a distance to take all the flowers, then those that are not made into set pieces are almost always sent to the hospital. They must be rearranged so as to have the appearance of cut flowers.

Knitted Wools Make Tireless Travelers

The woman who does her driving without any give. The family chauffeuring as part of the daily routine, or the global traveler, knows the importance of clothes that are geared to look and feel good in action. For the long jaunt or the short cap hop, the costume of all-American knitted wool has a special gadabout flair that can't be matched.

Slithering in and out of low-slung cars gracefully requires limber clothes as well as the limber body. (So does clamoring off and on a bus, for that matter.) Knits are as supple as a well-trained muscle, flexing easily and smoothly, avoiding those familiar clumsy movements caused by the restriction of fabric.

elweary or rumped. The springy fiber bounces back into shape even after being sat on for hours. They're a sure cure for travel fidgets, offering utmost comfort while relaxing en route and absolutely no constraint or binding. Because the fiber is alive, knitted wools always look wide-awake and band-box fresh. Even the dampest sea breezes or muggiest weather can't make them limp or listless.

The classic, universally flattering lines of the new styles add a tremendous bonus of extra wearing mileage either at home or abroad. A costume of a willowy sleeveless sheath and jacket is a virtuoso in both the day and evening wardrobe. The sheath adds a blouse for solo daytime performance, or festive jewelry for dress-up.

Your Problems

Mother Becomes Flustered by Child's Bad, Unruly Behavior

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN: I've been a mother for six years and believe me, motherhood is not what it's cracked up to be. My problem is 6 years of age. He is driving me crazy. When he was born he was a breech birth. Then he had Ann Landers colic for six months. It seems he has caused us nothing but trouble from the day he was born. He dislikes adults and can't get along with children. When he was 3 he hit my best friend's little girl in the face with a toy rake. She still carries the scar. We are no longer friends.

The first week of school my son's teacher came to see me at the house. She said in her 31 years of teaching she has never seen such an unruly child. He refuses to listen, won't follow directions, bothers the other children and disrupts the class.

My husband I fight constantly about the boy. He says I'm too hard on him. The neighbors say I'm too soft. I know something is wrong but I don't know what it is. Please answer in the paper. If my husband knew I was writing to you he'd break my neck. — Flop of a Mother

Dear Flop: You start your letter by criticizing the boy because he was a breech birth (born feet first) and then because he suffered colic — as if he did it out of spite.

If you'll examine your heart you'll find you didn't want this child to begin with. The results of your hostility are manifested in his aggressive and rebellious personality. You need outside help at once. Your family doctor will recommend a specialist in the field of child behavior. Unless this boy gets professional guidance he's in for a lifetime of trouble.

DEAR ANN: My steady boy friend says if I go out for cheerleader next week he and I are through. I've always wanted to be a cheerleader and think I have a good chance.

The trouble is the cheerleaders wear pleated skirts that hit above the knee. He says it's indecent and he's not going to have his steady appear "half naked" before the school. My father who is a clergyman says Lee is off his noodle and that the costumes are cute.

I hate to lose this fellow. He's got lots of good qualities, but I don't want to give in on this. Please advise. — Go Team

Dear Go: If the school authorities have okayed the costume your boy friend should have no beefs. He's being inconsiderate and selfish.

(P. S. The current fashions are almost up there right now!)

DEAR ANN: Call me a bum sport, a poor loser or just plain cheap. Anyway I need some advice.

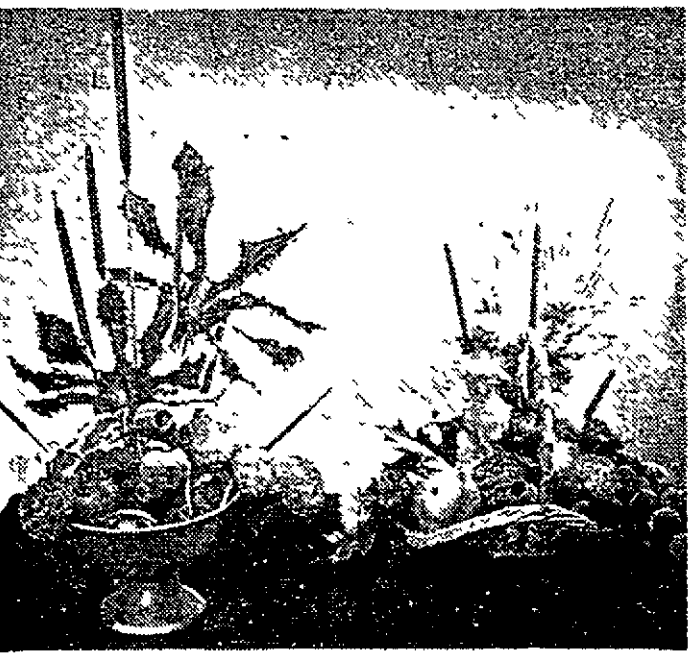

Four of us fellows match coins to see who pays for the coffee during our breaks. I lose four times out of five and I can't figure it out. I don't know how the flip can be rigged, but the law of averages says I should do better than this.

I'm getting tired of being the sucker but I don't know how to get off the spot. Help! — Chumperoonie

Dear Chumperoonie: I don't know what the gimmick is either, but I do know that you can just say "no more flipping" — and pay for your own coffee. (Copyright, 1959)

Noise and Clatter Part of Childhood

BY ANGELO PATRI

There is a noisy scramble on the back steps, the door slams to with a force that makes the dishes in the closet rattle.

"Mom, can I—" "For pity's sake, Roy. Can't you come into the house without loosening the plaster? You've awakened the baby again."

Now a husky murmur like the rumbling of the wind on the hills: "Mom, can I have four doughnuts? Quick? We're going on the lot. I need four."

"All right but do be home for supper on time so your father won't be upset as he was last night. Now remember—" "Oh, sure," and the door bangs behind his clattering feet.

Late for supper

Father and mother are about to sit down at the table. Father looks around and asks, "Where's that boy? Late again?"

Just then there is the sound of approaching steps. He comes in with a rush, panting, "I'll be right there in a minute, Mom." The bat falls on the floor. He appears in the dining room, his tie loose and Mother looks at him wearily and says, "Run along and wash up." He clatters up the stairs and there is the sound of rushing water. Father says, "It does seem to me that he might, just once in a while, be home on time to get to the table all in a piece. Maybe it is too much to expect."

Sheinwold on Bridge Suspicious Nature Can Help Defeat Opponents

South had a better chance to make his contract if he tried the spades first. If he could manage to steal just one spade trick South could then switch to diamonds and make sure of nine tricks.

West Is Tempted

West was tempted to play a low spade at the second trick, for this would increase the value of his jack of spades. Nevertheless, West resisted this temptation. He looked at dummy's powerful diamonds and wondered what on earth South was doing with the obviously weaker spades. When an expert opponent leaves a strong suit alone and sets to work on a weak suit, you should smell the aroma of fish at a distance of 20 yards.

His suspicions aroused, West found the right defense. West hopped right up with the ace of spades and led another heart. This doomed South. The defenders were sure to get three hearts and their two aces, defending the contract.

Partner opens with 1 NT (16 to 18 points) and the next player passes. You hold: S-K 8 7 4, H-A 7, D-10 8 3, C-A 7 6 3. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two clubs, the Stayman convention. This asks your partner to bid a major suit if he has one. If he bids two spades, you will raise to four spades; but if he bids anything else you will bid three notrump at your next turn. (Copyright 1959)

Officers Plan Formal Dance

The first major social event scheduled for the newly completed Green Bay Elks club will be a formal dinner dance on Nov. 14. It is the annual military ball sponsored by the Reserve Officers' association.

Lt. Col. Bert Dunlap, president of the Green Bay chapter, Reserve Officers of America, has extended an invitation to all military personnel in the area to attend.

Tickets for the formal get-together may be purchased from any Green Bay chapter ROA member. The dinner will begin at 8:30 p.m.

HIS AND HERS—

BY MURIEL STAFFORD, GRAPHOLOGIST

HE aggravates me to no end.

SHE I seemed to get flustered

Unreasonable Spouse

"...My wife is the slowest person I have ever known and since I am quick, it aggravates me to no end."

I have news for you, sir! You aren't quicker than your wife. You are just more nervous, critical and bossy, according to your heavy, angular script with jerky baseline and long beginning strokes.

You've certainly sold your wife on the idea that she's a slowpoke and you are a whiz. She writes in her clear, precise handwriting, "My husband is unusually quick and is slightly lacking in patience. When I hurry I seem to get flustered and lose track of what I am about when an interruption occurs (there are many with the children.) My husband believes I am not concentrating on what I am doing. I wish we could reach an agreement."

Your wife has excellent powers of organization. Though not a speeder, she's by nature thorough and careful. But how in the world can any woman keep house with a critical, belittling husband breathing down her neck?

Let her visit Mother or some aunt for a week and leave you with the children and you'll soon discover how competent she really is as a housekeeper.

Another suggestion, why don't you take the children out for a walk while mother's busy? That will speed her up, I promise

Miss Stafford welcomes letters from her readers. They cannot be acknowledged, but the most interesting ones will be used in her column. (Copyright, 1959)

How Many Rolls of Wallpaper for Room

It's easy enough to estimate how many rolls of wallpaper are needed for a room if you know, first of all, that every roll of paper totals the same number of square feet. Narrower paper is being shown today for the convenience of the many do-it-yourself paper hangers who can handle it more easily, but when the roll is narrower, it's longer.

Most wallpapers are 18, 20, 24, or 28 inches wide, but whatever the width, each roll adds up to 36 square feet. Even the professional paper hanger, however, estimates that the area finished by one roll is 30 square feet. Pattern matching, short ends that can't be used and strips that must be taken from length account for the extra. Measure the walls, then measure the doors and windows and deduct their square foot areas from the total of square feet for the walls. Divide by 30 to right hand, swings that hand back and gives it to the second player who must receive it with his right hand, shift it to his left and pass it backward to the left hand of the player behind him. It continues down the line in this criss-cross manner, then back up the line to the first player. The first line to finish is the winner.

In the second relay, illustrated by Figure 2, the wet bar must be handed back over the head all the way down the line and back. The players may not turn around to pass or accept, but must keep their eyes to the front.

For the third relay, illustrated in Figure 3, the soap is placed in the left hand of the first player. At the signal to begin, he shifts it to his

Food Bargains Plentiful For Careful Shoppers

Fox Cities grocery and what she wants and where to get it. Many stores are featuring careful shopper who knows specials on fall vegetables and fruits, pork and in some cases, even beef, which has been relatively high priced for quite a while.

This is the time to buy pork. Pork steak is available at from 35 to 49 cents a pound, spare ribs are as low as 39 cents, and some stores offer center cut chops at 49 to 59 cents a pound, with choicer cuts slightly higher.

Pork shoulder roast is a real bargain at 29 cents a pound, and bacon can be obtained for anywhere from 29 cents a pound on up, depending largely on brand and quality.

Spare ribs start at about 39 cents a pound and pork loin roasts are from 39 to 45 cents a pound, with rib roasts slightly less. Pork hocks are available at about 25 cents a pound.

Beef Buys. Beef is not such a good buy, but if you're hankering for a good steak, this might be the weekend to try it. Some stores are featuring these specials: standing rib roasts, 69 cents a pound; round steak, 59 cents; sirloin, 69 to 79 cents; T-bones, 79 to 85 cents; and porterhouse, 95 cents.

Fowl continues to be one of the most reasonable meat buys. Fryers are selling as low as 26 or 27 cents a pound, with stewers about the same, and heavy roasting chickens for about 49 cents. Large Cornish game hens, ranging from about a pound and a half to two pounds, sell for 69 or 79 cents each in some stores.

As Thanksgiving nears, merchants are pushing turkeys, too, and they are available at 39 cents a pound for the small, 4 to 8-pound birds or in the 16 to 22 pound size.

Eggs Reasonable. Egg prices continue reasonable. Grade A large sell for about 47 or 49 cents a dozen and several Fox Cities grocers are pegging ungraded and small Grade A eggs at 25 cents a dozen.

There are many reasonable

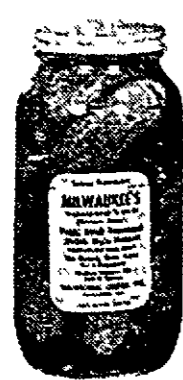

Instant Coffee May be Used for Old-Time Dessert

Coffee Jelly is an old-time favorite that today can be made with instant coffee.

While the dessert may be made with cold water, half boiling water brings out the flavor better. The whipped cream topping may be sweetened and flavored with vanilla, rum or cognac.

Coffee Jelly
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 cup cold water
2½ cups double strength hot coffee
1 cup sugar
Dash salt
Flavored whipped cream
Soften gelatin in cold water. Add hot coffee, sugar and salt, and stir until dissolved. Pour in mold and chill until set. Unmold and serve with flavored whipped cream.

Flavored Whipped Cream
¾ cup heavy cream
Dash salt
2 tablespoons sugar
2 teaspoon vanilla extract, or 1½ tablespoons rum or cognac
Whip cream, and fold in salt, sugar and flavoring.

Handy Food

Canned Apples Spare Work but Save Flavor

Among the newer items that have come into household use are the canned sliced apples which are convenient even in the fresh apple season. This is in line with the trend for keeping a variety of pantry shelf items that are ready to use on a day when for some reason special marketing has been omitted.

Until recently, canned apples have been found almost entirely in restaurant store-rooms, as their use had been found labor saving. In the home kitchen, there has been a great demand for canned applesauce that with a touch of extra spice is so satisfactory. The flavoring of other fruit such as cranberry and raspberry has increased the use of this product.

The fact that there is some demand for canned apples does not mean we ignore the fine fresh apples being offered just now. Many TV viewers like to munch them and the children like nothing better as a between-meal snack. They are almost as closely associated with Thanksgiving as pumpkin pie.

Everyone loves baked apples, of course, and we choose the fruit that responds best to oven treatment. We like them either plain or stuffed with nuts and raisins.

Jellied Baked Apples
2½ cups (1 can) sliced apples
One-third cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Butter
4 teaspoons grenadine or a few drops red coloring
Spread apple slices in shallow baking pan. Mix together sugar, cornstarch and gelatin. Sprinkle over apples and mix well. Stir in lemon rind and juice. Bake in 375-degree oven 20 minutes. Butter four custard cups and place one teaspoon grenadine or few drops red coloring into each. Divide baked apple slices among custard cups and chill for several hours. Unmold on serving dishes.

Applesauce
Cranberry Pie
4 cups cranberries
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups canned apple sauce
Pastry
Put cranberries through course blade of food chopper. Add sugar, cinnamon, flour and applesauce. Place filling in pastry-lined 9-inch pie pan. Dot with butter and cover with pastry. Make slits in top pastry to allow steam to escape. Flute edges. Bake in 425-degree oven 30 to 40 minutes.

2 Peach Recipes New, Unusual

Here are two unusual peach recipes worthy of any home-maker's file. One of Fried Peaches, the other a special dessert with which sherry, cognac or cordial may be used.

Fried Peaches
2 tablespoons butter
½ cup sugar
Cut peaches in halves, remove stones, but do not peel. Melt butter and place peaches in pan with cut side down. Cook over low heat until tender, basting with butter. Turn and cook on other side for few minutes, adding more butter as needed. Add sugar and cook until sugar dissolves. Serve as meat accompaniment or as dessert.
Peach Special
Choose ripe but firm peaches. Place in boiling water for about two minutes. Drain and serve on individual plates. Each person should cut his peach in half, remove stone, and fill hollow with pat of butter and confectioners' sugar. The heat will melt the butter at once. If desired, cognac or a cordial can be poured over the butter and sugar. Serve accompanied by fruit knife and fork or spoon.

New York Oyster Bar Serves 5 Million Oysters Each Year

Five million oysters! Hard to comprehend? Yet that is the number served every year at the Oyster Bar in New York's Grand Central Terminal. Twenty-five thousand of these succulent mollusks are eaten daily, either raw, fried, stewed or broiled.

In fact, more oysters are consumed in the Oyster Bar than in any other restaurant in the world. Head chef Nick Petters, born in Greece—but who has the curious nickname of the Egyptian Fatima—is famous for his oyster stews, and personally makes between 450 and 500 oyster stews a day. Helgar Hoover, Fredric March, Carlos Romulo, Helen Keller, the Duchess of Windsor and Talullah Bankhead. Here is Nick's recipe for his world-famous oyster stew.

Nick Petters' Oyster Stew
Place a pat of butter in a saucepan with a few dashes each of paprika, celery salt, one-half teaspoon of Worcestershire sauce and two soup spoons of clam juice. Dissolve and bring to a boil. Put in eight oysters. Cook one and one-half minutes until the edges curl a little. Add one-half pint of milk, and keep stirring until it simmers. Pour into heated bowl and serve. Makes one serving.

Honey Sandwiches

Just a plain honey sandwich can always come out on top of any popularity contest involving sandwich spreads. The newer finely crystallized honeys of creamy consistency are wonderful for sandwiches.

Colorful Yams Add Their natural sweetness to your dinner menu. For a novel treatment, prepare the yams with a creamy shrimp mixture.

Sweet Potatoes, Yams Both Vine Tubers Closely Related

BY EDITH M. BARBER

What's the difference between sweet potatoes and yams? There is no actual line. The same vegetable may be called one or the other in various sections of the country. They are both tubers of a vine. A special type of sweet potato, more moist than others, is often called a yam, although botanically this is not a proper designation. The real yams are now cultivated extensively in Louisiana, which supplies our markets throughout the winter. They are delicious baked and served in their jackets, and may be boiled or mashed. Candied yams are a favorite accompaniment for ham, for the saltiness of the meat contrasts well with the sweet flavor of the yam. Their sweetness makes them a natural ingredient for desserts such as pudding or pie.

Yam and Shrimp

1-3 cup flour
1 teaspoon cayenne
1 teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon onion salt
1 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups light cream
2 cans (1 pound each) yams, drained, or 6 medium yams, cooked and peeled
1 1/2 pounds shrimp, cooked, shelled and deveined
Heat oil. Add flour and seasonings and blend. Gradually add cream and stir over low heat until sauce thickens. Cut yams in half lengthwise, and add with shrimp to sauce. Continue cooking over low heat about 10 minutes, stirring frequently.

Stuffed Yams

1 1/2 cups finely chopped cooked meat
1 small onion, finely chopped
1/2 cup finely chopped mushrooms
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
2 tablespoons cream
2 tablespoons butter
Bake yams in 350-degree oven about one hour, or until tender. Cut in half and scoop out yams, reserving shells. Mash yams and mix with remaining ingredients. Fill yam shells with mixture and dot with butter or margarine. Return to oven and bake about 20 minutes.

Two Dip Recipes Meat-Flavored

Here are recipes for two meat-flavored dips that will do justice to the fanciest party or be welcomed as tidbits when unexpected guests drop by.

Meat-Egg Dip

1 package (5 1/2 oz.) cream cheese with chives, softened
2 tablespoons milk
1 hard cooked egg, chopped
1 tablespoon mayonnaise
Blend all ingredients using electric mixer. Chill. Makes about two cups.

Ham Salad Dip

1 package ham salad spread
1 package (5 1/2 oz.) cream cheese, softened
3 tablespoons chopped ripe olives
1 tablespoon mustard
2 teaspoons horseradish
1 teaspoon Tabasco sauce
Blend all ingredients using electric mixer. Chill. Makes about one cup.

2nd 'MVP' Award Comes as Surprise To Cubs' Banks

Ernie Is NL's 1st Repeat Winner; Mathews Second in Voting

Chicago. — Being named the National league's most valuable player for an unprecedented second year came as a real surprise to Ernie Banks.

"Any of a half-dozen or so other fellows I thought would beat me out," said the wiry, 28-year-old Chicago Cub shortstop.

"There were a lot of good players in the league this season — fellows like Hank Aaron, Eddie Mathews and Lew Burdette of the Braves, Sam Jones and Willie Mays of the Giants and Charley Neal and Wally Moon of the Dodgers. "And they were all on pennant contenders, too. That usually weighs in their favor. "All I can say is that it's wonderful and unexpected news — a thrill and an honor, but hard to believe.

Looks Forward "Every player looks forward to two things — winning the most valuable award and playing on a championship team. I'm looking ahead to a world championship at Wrigley field next year and I definitely think we can do it. If our young pitching jells and we get the breaks, we could be in."

A year ago when Banks won the award, he implied that it was a good talking point for a raise. He got it. This time he was signed before the award was announced. He still got a reported $10,000 increase, boosting him to an estimated $60,000 for 1960.

The springy-wristed Banks, becoming the first National league player to win the honor in successive years, batted .304 and had these other accomplishments for 1959 with the fifth place Cubs:

Established a new high fielding percentage of .995 committing only 12 errors, fewest of any shortstop who ever played a full season in the majors.

Led both leagues in runs batted in with 143, highest in the National league since Joe Medwick totaled 154 in 1937. Hit 45 homers. It tied him for the lead with Mathews, but the Milwaukee third baseman hit one in the playoff series to take homer honors.

Only Two Since the most valuable designation became the official award of the Baseball Writers' association of America in 1931, only three National league players won it, two or more times. Stan Musial and Roy Campanella each were named three times and Carl Hubbell twice. But never had a player taken it in successive years.

There have been four successive-year winners in the American league — Jimmy Foxx, Hal Newhouser, "Yogi" Berra and Mickey Mantle. All the repeaters were on pennant contenders, making Banks' achievement all the more glowing.

Banks won the 1958 prize by a landslide as the Cubs again shared fifth place. The voting was a little tighter this time. He collected 232 1/2 points to 189 1/2 for Mathews. 174 for Aaron and 161 for Moon among the top finishers.

9 GBW Students Suspended for Throwing Eggs

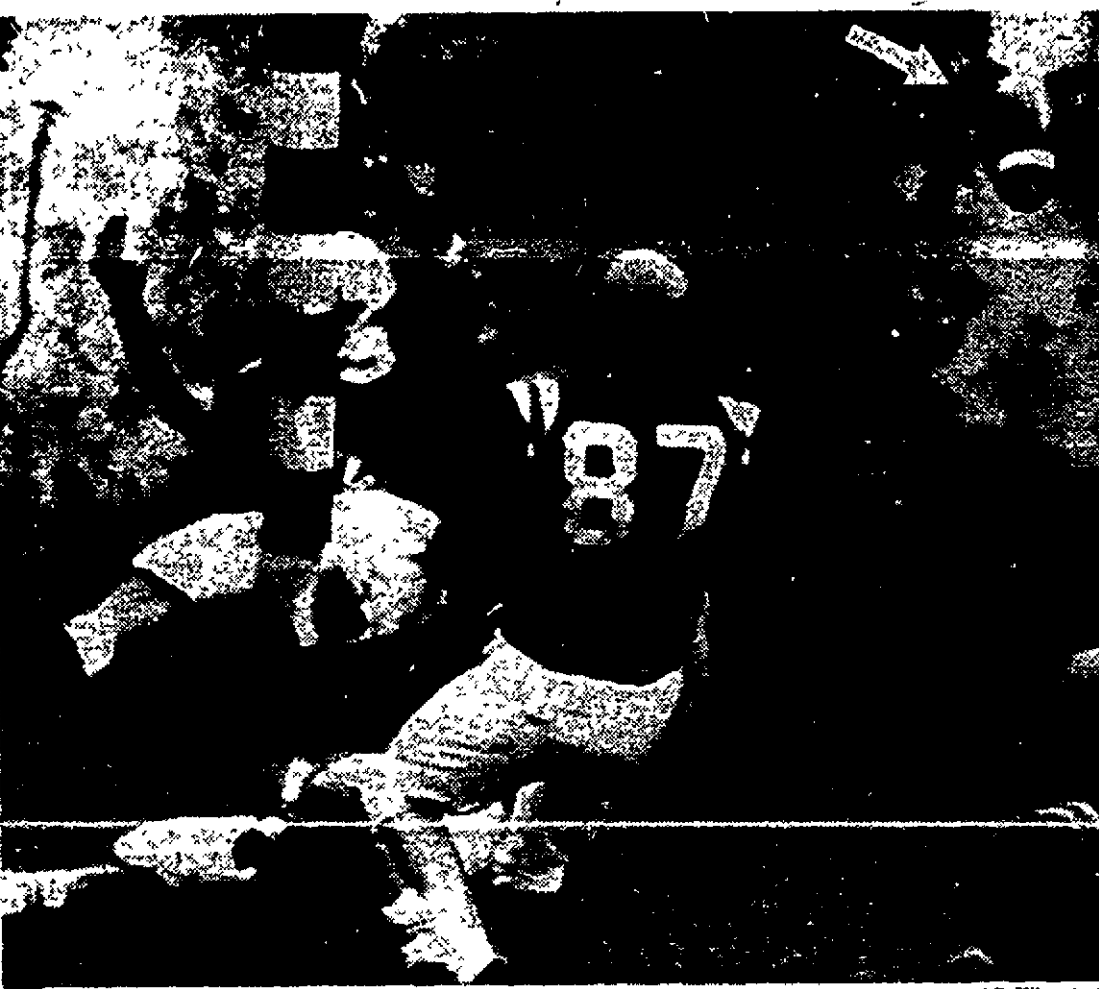

Green Bay — East is east and west is west and never the twain shall meet — especially for high schoolers in this city.

Nine students of Green Bay West High school were suspended and banned from attending Saturday's football game for invading East High school territory and pelting eggs at rival students.

Police have assigned extra guards to forestall any further disorders which generally occur prior to the annual East-West contest.

Bears Have Passed More and Run Less Than Green Bay

Bruins' Rushing Game Jelled In Sunday's Victory Over Rams

Post-Crescent News Service

Green Bay — The Packers ran off 337 plays (rushes and passes) in the first half of the season, the Bears 339.

That's practically a tie, but here's the difference: The Packers emphasized the rush, having lugged 269 times against the Bears 169. The Bears passed more than the Packers 170 (attempts) to 128.

There's an old saw in football that says the running game makes the pass click. The Bears haven't been able to run much—until last Sunday, and that might account for their 2-4. The Packers, on the other hand, were among the top rushing clubs in the league—until the foes ganged up on Paul Hornung when Jim Taylor was sidelined.

Now Taylor's back. Hornung can get some running room, and let's block up front!

Lost Ground Power The Bears, however, found themselves some "lost" ground power and turned it into a 26-21 victory over the Rams in Los Angeles last Sunday. The big gainer was the fullback, Rick Casares, who rolled up 89 yards. And that was yards more than the Bears gained all day against the Colts in an earlier game.

With Casares back on the beam, the Bears likely will try to grind it out. And that's a challenge for our defense which has allowed fewer yards than any club in the league, 1,607. Only two clubs have allowed less yards rushing than the Packers. New York gave up 509 on the ground and Cleveland 674 against the Pack's 735. The Bears allowed 959 on the ground.

While the Packers have allowed fewer yards passing than the Bears, 1,045 to 872, the Bear defense has the better percentage of completions, 48.4, against Green Bay's 53.4.

Unhappy Quarters

On the matter of points, it's interesting to note that both the Packers and Bears have had what might be politely called unhappy quarters in the second half. The Packers have been outscored, 55-7, in the third periods while the Bears have been outpointed, 68 to 13, in the fourth frames. Two clubs scored 35 of those 55 on the Packers — two touchdowns by the 49ers and three by the Colts. The Bays' lone TD came on that 81-yard Lamar McHan pass to McGee.

The Packers were extremely tough in the fourth period, with the exception of the Ram game when the LAs counted 24 points. Green Bay allowed only six marks in the composite fourth period of the other five games. The Packers scored 37 points in the fourth frames and 30 came in the three wins, 9 over the Bears for a 9-6 verdict; 14 on the Lions for a 28-10 win; and 7 on the 49ers for a 21-20 win.

Seeks Big 5 Review

Cal Has No Intention Of Breaking Relations

San Francisco. — The University of California has no intention of breaking athletic relations with the University of Southern California over the McKeever-Bates football incident.

But California still wants the Big Five — Athletic Association of Western Universities — to review California's charges that USC guard Mike McKeever, an All-America candidate, deliberately elbowed halfback Steve Bates in Saturday's game here. Bates' cheek bone and nose were broken.

USC officials have apologized publicly to California, but Coach Don Clark didn't. He and McKeever previously denied that McKeever purposely piled onto Bates on the sidelines.

Some alumni groups suggested that Cal sever athletic relations with SC unless disciplinary action is taken against McKeever. The executive committee of the Associated Students at California urged the university not to play football against USC again if McKeever is a team member.

California Chancellor Glenn T. Seaborg said "We are not contemplating a break in athletic relations with the University of Southern California."

Kaukauna Finishes With 5-2 M-E Mark

Kimberly '11' Forfeits

Kimberly — Kaukauna High school boosted its Mid-Eastern conference record to 5-2 Wednesday as Kimberly forfeited the final game of the season in an unusual football turn.

Early morning rain and snow left the Papermaker field in unplayable condition. Rather than postpone the tilt longer, Kimberly officials decided to forfeit.

Both teams had been out of the running for the championship prior to the game. If Neenah and Clintonville tie for the title, Kaukauna will get the runnerup spot.

Kaukauna wanted the game postponed until Saturday as New London and Menasha did yesterday. Kimberly officials said it would interfere with the previously set schedule for basketball practice.

Kimberly finished with a league record of 3-4 and was 3-5, overall.

Coe Eyes Solo Title

Coe college can assure itself a repeat solo Midwest conference title Saturday afternoon by defeating visiting Carleton. Cornell's only chance for a title tie would come if the Rams knock off Monmouth and Carleton pulls an upset. In games involving Wisconsin schools, Ripon plays at Grinnell and Beloit at Knox.

start chanting that 'um-ya-ya' (fight song) Saturday it'll be so familiar to us it will sound like our own crowd singing," says Kaukauna end Joe Lamers.

Typifies Determination That sincere, if unusual, approach typifies the determination of the hustling Vikings, the surprise team of the 1959 Midwest conference race.

The Vikes will probably need all their determination Saturday in Northfield, Minn. The Oles, pre-season co-favorites for the title with Coe, have already been eliminated from the championship scramble but they're a mighty potent outfit.

After a couple of early-season upsets, they've won four straight games and have — according to Lawrence Coach Bernie Heselton — "the MC's best-balanced backfield."

Lawrence currently perches alone in fourth place and can finish the year in a third place tie with an upset win at Northfield. If the Vikings lose Saturday they could finish in fourth alone or share.

Wildcats Lose 2nd Stringer For UW Game

Meyers to Start at QB for Illinois Against Wolves

Chicago — Midwest football briefs:

Northwestern—Larry Onesti, second string center, is lost for the Wisconsin game with an injured knee. Jay Dillon or Dick Nichols will replace him.

Illinois — Guard Bill Burrell is out of the hospital after treatment for an inflamed ankle tendon and is expected to play against Michigan. Mel Meyers was named starting quarterback.

Ohio State — Coach Woody Hayes may be decreasing his platooning system. He played several starters 55 minutes or more against Michigan State.

Michigan State — The Spartans got practice handling a wet ball as they worked out in a steady drizzle for the Purdue game.

Minnesota — The Gophers practiced in a light snow and an assistant coach said: "Snow is the best thing that could happen for us against Iowa. You give those Hawkeyes a dry field and they are terrors."

Notre Dame — Bob Scarpit-on punts as the Irish preparation, Ray Ratkowski and Angelo Dabiero worked as deep men

Nesseth Wants To Sell Interest In Don Jordan

Los Angeles — F O R sale: Half of world welter-weight champion Don Jordan. The price: $125,000.

Don Nesseth — a former used car salesman — hung that price tag on Jordan Monday, when he and Jordan announced that they aren't happy together.

Jackie McCoy holds the other half of Jordan's contract, and Jordan indicated he'd be willing to let McCoy take over. Nesseth was willing, too — but only for $125,000.

Since he won the crown from Virgil Atkins, Jordan has defended it twice.

Although neither Jordan nor Nesseth went into details of their difficulties, Jordan said:

"Nesseth has made fights for me without telling me and has announced appearances that I did not know anything about."

Badger Eleven Holds First Secret Drill

Madison — Coach Milt Bruhn had his University of Wisconsin football team hold its first secret drill of the season Wednesday in preparation for the Big Ten conference game with Northwestern Saturday.

The team worked out in the Camp Randall Memorial building away from the eyes of scouts and newsmen.

All reports indicated that Bruhn will have the team in top physical condition for the game at Evanston, Ill.

Wildcats Wonder if New Star Will be Born in UW Game

By Charles Chamberlain

Evanston, Ill. — A coach builds his entire offense around a quarterback who is great at signal calling, passing, running, punting and is outstanding on defense.

Then, he loses him for the season on the opening kickoff of the first conference game. That's what happened to Ara Parseghian as he started his fourth season at Northwestern this fall.

Dick Thornton, a blue chip athlete plucked from the Chicago area in Northwestern's intensified recruiting program, broke his ankle at Iowa after leading the Wildcats to a stunning 45-13 opening victory over Oklahoma.

Keys Comeback

Thornton keyed Northwestern's comeback in 1958, winning recognition nationally.

Saturday, the Wildcats face ninth-ranked Wisconsin, a pivotal game in a struggle for their first Big Ten title in 23 years.

Will there be a new Northwestern star this time?

There has been one born in the heat of action nearly every Saturday as the Wildcats turned to the bench to plug injury gaps and keep their winning string—longest since 1936—stretching.

Coach Ara Parseghian says:

"This may sound corny, but desire is what has been keeping this team going. It is that deeply-rooted desire that has helped fuse those long-gainers which have broken open games for us."

Seldom have so many different players figured in the big plays as they have for Northwestern: Against Iowa—Ray Purdin, 46 yard run; Michigan—John Talley 63-yard pass to Purdin; Purdue 85-yard run; Oklahoma—Ron Burton, 62-yard run; Elbert Kimbrough, 47-yard pass interception return; Notre Dame—Talley, 54-yard pass to Purdin and 78-yard pass to Irv Cross; 61-yard run by Talley; Indiana—Burton, 63-yard punt return; Mike Stock 28 and 24-yard runs.

"It's darn hard to beat a team that doesn't want to be beaten," says Parseghian.

Wilt Tallies 41 Points, 40 Rebounds

By The Associated Press

The fellows who said it would take time for Wilt "The Stilt" Chamberlain to find his way around in the tough National Basketball association might consider these figures: Three games, 120 points, 102 rebounds—and three straight victories for the rejuvenated Philadelphia Warriors.

The next question might be: What happens when he learns the league?

Warriors Rally

The 7-foot-1 former Kansas All-American had another big game Wednesday night, scoring 41 points and grabbing a record of 40 rebounds for Convention hall in Philadelphia as the unbeaten Warriors drubbed the Syracuse Nationals, 124-113. And it was 14 points by Chamberlain in the third period that rallied the Warriors after they trailed, 58-57, at halftime.

The New York Knicks evened their record at 2-2 in the other NBA game with a 107-101 decision over Detroit. Richie Guerin had 27 points.

Polo Grounds May be Public Housing Site

New York — The Polo grounds, where once the cry "play ball" rang out, is going to become a low rent public housing site.

The City Housing authority is going to ask the Board of Estimate for approval to erect 1,700 apartments where the former New York Giants baseball team played. Federal funds would be used for the project.

The city would acquire the Polo Grounds by condemnation.

Edgar P. Feeley, attorney and treasurer for the San Francisco Giants, which holds a lease on the park, said it would take the city at least two years to complete all the legal work and surveying be-

Major Men's, AAA Circuits Have 8 Quints

'Double A' Loop Seeking One Team As Openers Near

Two Appleton Recreation department men's basketball leagues—the Major AAA and Major Men's wheels — are ready to begin their seasons with full 8-team complements.

The third men's loop — the Major AA — is still seeking one club for an 8-team league. The Major Men's circuit opens play next Wednesday, Nov. 11. The other two are slated to begin action the following week.

Major AAA teams, with managers' names, are: Adler Brau, Jim Coenen; Pond Sport, Lou Rogers; Fox Valley Cab, Paul Jahnke; Unsponsored, Bill Coenen; Unsponsored, Robert McCoy; IPC, Dick Cornell; Ummuth's, Bob Stevenson; Slim Otto's, Arlin Krueger.

AA League

The AA loop will be comprised of: Smits construction, Bill McGinnis; Schreifers Tap, Ben Arnold; Fountain Lumber, Jim Helmermann; Mahoney Haring, Dick Mahoney; Unsponsored, Tom Van Wyk; Retson's Sandwich shop, Floyd Vandenberg; Merholtz, William Johnson.

In the Major Men's circuit are: Headquarters Company, Ed Steenis; Police Department, Ervin Lietz; Post-Current, Gene Schultes; Juvenile Furniture, Delbert Dreang; Vocational school, Larry Wichman; Aid Association, Kurt Schoenrock; St. Mary, Jerry Miller; Post Office, Bill Brandt. The loop starts play Wednesday, Nov. 11.

New York City Makes Pitch For Army Tilt

Promotion Director Seeks 1960 Game With Syracuse '11'

New York — New York City is going all out to get the Army football team into Yankee stadium next year and has an eye out for a continuation of the Army-Air Force series here.

Bill Tackmann, director of promotion for industry and public events in the city's commerce department, said Monday that he will approach West Point officials at the season's end to see if they are amenable to moving next year's game with Syracuse into Yankee stadium. The game is scheduled for Nov. 5, 1960, in Army's 27,500 seat Michie stadium. Army already has a 1961 date with Oklahoma here.

Last Saturday, more than 67,000 fans jammed Yankee stadium to see Army and Air Force tie, 13-13, in the first game of a new interservice rivalry.

This crowd, plus the throngs in other major sports events here last weekend boosted attendance past the 200,000 mark, and has sent the city scurrying after other choice events.

for it could tear down the Polo Grounds stadium for the project.

UW-NU Duel Could Make or Break All-America Prospects

Chicago — The Big Ten football title showdown between Northwestern and Wisconsin Saturday could make or break several strong All-America candidates.

This pivotal clash at Evanston, Ill., stabs the spotlight on performers highly-ranked by the Midwest selection board for the 1959 Associated Press honor team.

Pretty Good Batch

Among them are tackles Dan Lanphear and Jim Heinicke and guard Jerry Stalcup of Wisconsin and center Jim Andretti and halfbacks Ron Burton and Ray Purdin of Northwestern.

Actually, the season's honor roll includes a pretty good batch from these two club-facting in the key game of the Big Ten season.

Quarterback Dale Hackbart, fullback Tom Wiesner and halfback Bob Zeman of Wisconsin have been cited by the board, as have Northwestern's fullback Mike Stock, end El Kimbrough and guard Pete Arena. Another fine Wildcat performer, guard Joe Abbatiello, will miss the Wisconsin game because of injury.

Rice Becomes 6th Catcher on Roster of Cubs

Chicago — Catcher Del Rice, released by the Milwaukee Braves as a coach at the end of the 1959 baseball season, Wednesday signed with the Chicago Cubs.

Rice, a 37-year-old veteran of 15 major league seasons, played 13 games before Milwaukee named him a coach. He had a career batting average of .238 and joined the Braves in 1955 after 10 years with St. Louis.

Rice joins a Cub catching staff which also includes Sammy Taylor, Cal Neeman, Earl Averill and Moe Thacker.

Spahn Faces Surgery on Injured Knee

Oklahoma City, Okla. — Warren Spahn, veteran lefthanded pitcher for the Milwaukee Braves, faced surgery today for a knee injury.

The operation on the 38-year-old hurler, whose home is on a ranch near Hartshorne, was decided upon after Spahn had been troubled with his left knee about three years.

The surgeon's nurse referred to the injury as a loose foreign object. Other reports called it a growth about the size of a pea between the knee cap and the bone.

Last year, when Spahn returned home after the baseball season it hurt so much he had the knee examined and drained. This year when he returned it handicapped him in walking. When he would turn quickly he sometimes fell.

Syracuse and LSU Lead In Defense

Tigers Haven't Yet Allowed Foes Touchdown

By The Associated Press

Undefeated Louisiana State, the nation's No. 1 college football team, has scored against major eleven this season.

The Bayou Tigers, along with unbeaten fourth-ranked Syracuse, have a monopoly on most of the major college defense honors, according to NCAA Service bureau statistics released today.

LSU, with the longest winning streak (19) in major football, is the only team that has denied its opponents a touchdown. Only nine points—three field goals—have been scored against the Tigers in seven games.

Overall defense honors, however, went to Syracuse, which has permitted less than a yard per play by rushing (134 in 166 tries) and twice in six games has held its opponents to minus yardage on the ground.

Opponents have been able to gain only 575 yards both in the air and on the ground against Syracuse. That's an average of only 95.8 yards per game. LSU is second with a 143.6 average.

Alabama leads in forward pass defense, permitting only 26 completions in 56 attempts for 301 yards against it. Alabama is one of five teams that still has not given up a touchdown by passing. The others are LSU, Florida, Purdue and North Texas State.

'Karly' Limpert Bowls 519 Trio

A 519 trio by "Karly" Limpert topped the scoring in the Kitchen Cheaters league at Hahn's earlier this week.

She bowls for the Landers Grocery team which trails first-place Appleton Concrete (16-5) by three games.

Ken Uhlenbrauck Hits 551 at 12 Corners

Ken Uhlenbrauck cracked a 551 trio for laurels in the latest edition of Cigaret Couples league bowling at Twelve Corners. His Lucky Strike team (7-5) shares first place with the Sales, Camels and L and Ms.

No honor counts were reported in the Sherwood Sportsman's wheel. The Sherwood Wreckers (16-8) are ahead by one game.

Liska Picks Wildcats' Speed Over UW Heft

Selects Marquette To Capture First Win of Season

BY JERRY LISKA

Chicago—The old Midwest pigskin professor is rallying down the home stretch. He has a season mark of 31-14 for .689, missing only on Marquette and the Purdue-Illinois tie last week.

Wiping the frost off the crystal ball, here he goes again:

Northwestern 13, Wisconsin 7—This probably will be for all the marbles in the Big Ten. The Wildcats have the speed to offset Badger heft. However, Northwestern will miss injured guard Joe Abbatello in what could be a whale of a front-line battle. Wisconsin's bruising trio of tackles Dan Lanphear and Jim Heinke and guard Jerry Stalcup will get a merry workout against Wildcat ramblers Ron Burton, Ray Purdin and Mike Stock.

Purdue 13, Michigan State 12—The Spartans can be speared by good passing and the Boilermakers will be throwing Saturday. Michigan State lacks the playbustier Illinois sent against Purdue in clash between two power-minded teams, although the Buckeyes did some high-caliber passing against Michigan State. This is not the same Hoosier team Ohio State clobbered 49-8 last season and the Bucks may pay for that routing.

Iowa 18, Minnesota 7—The Hawkeyes' adroit offense will be challenged by a rugged Gopher defense. It should be recalled that Minnesota held explosive Northwestern to one touchdown.

Notre Dame 14, Georgia Tech 13—This intersectional contest, rated a toss-up, could be a rip-roaring struggle between two spirited teams. Notre Dame has found scoring power in its past two games against Navy and Northwestern.

Ohio State 14, Indiana 7—A that spot with one, two or three clubs—Ripon, Beloit and Carleton.

Eight seniors, all of them regulars or near regulars, will be playing their last game Saturday.

Co-Captain Rick Ramsey, who saw action for the first time this season in Saturday's 14-6 win over Carleton, came through the Knight game without re-injuring his ankle. He's likely to work more in the defensive backfield at St. Olaf and could play some offense, too.

Co-Captain Dave Hackworth, a 3-year regular, has anchored the Viking line at center. He's been a reliable center, a solid blocker and—with junior Bob Smith—has given the club some of the best linebacking in the league this season.

Fine Blocker Guard Gil Sutherland, also a regular for three years, is one of the best blockers in the conference, pound-for-pound. The 190-pounder can fill in with distinction on defense when needed.

Fullback Gary Scovel, converted from end after his sophomore year, has developed into a hardrunner in the tradition of Lawrence fullbacks. This season he's been especially solid in other major phases of the game—blocking and tackling.

Doug Millard, who played the best game of his 2-year varsity career against Carleton, according to his coach, has come an especially long way and is also a 2-way performer.

Doug Logan, who never played high school football, was converted from end to tackle this fall and the tough-to-handle big boy picked up the assignments at the new spot remarkably well.

Mike Gilboy, the Lawrence kick-off man and a regular on the kick-off receiving platoon, has played every spot in the reserve-backfield.

Senior Mark Rodman, who broke his wrist earlier, won't make the trip.

Coached by former Neenah High Head Skipper Tom Porter, the split-T Oles have lost only to Ripon (18-7) and Cornell (19-0). The Vikes were 20-0 victims of Ripon and don't play the Rams.

St. Olaf opened with a 28-0 triumph over Beloit. Lawrence tripped the Buccaneers, 24-12. Saturday's Northfield foes were practically even against Knox. St. Olaf taking a 7-6 victory and Lawrence dropping an 8-7 heartbreaker. Lawrence's 14-6 triumph over Carleton was a point more decisive than St. Olaf's 7-0 success. Lawrence whacked Grinnell, 34-12. St. Olaf's Lions walked off with a 10-point (16-6) triumph over the Pioneers.

One Touchdown The Vikings beat Monmouth by one touchdown (14-8). St. Olaf stopped the Scots by two (27-14).

The Lawrentians have a better offensive average —(15.2 points a game, to St. Olaf's 13.1). But the Minnesotans hold the edge in defense—9.0 to 12.6.

Before Coe took a 15-14 edge in its all-time series with the Vikings earlier this year, St. Olaf was the only conference club with a series lead on the Appletonians. Add St. Olaf's is a decisive one—five wins in six games.

St. Olaf's fullback is a 6-3, 205-pound sophomore, Bill Winter, the outstanding player on last year's frosh team. Left half Bill Greenslit (155) has run the 100 in :09.7.

Hickey Doesn't Believe In Pampering Players

San Francisco, Calif. — "We need, and we've got, people who can play when they're not feeling good. We don't condone boys who feel sorry for themselves over bumps and bruises. They're part of the game."

Hickey, in his first year as head coach, contended the injuries aren't too important because the 49ers no longer are a team of individual stars. "These boys just want to get the job done," he said. "They don't care who does it."

New York — The status of quarterback Charley Conerly, halfback Frank Gifford and end Bob Schmecker of the New York Giants for their NFL game here with the Chicago Cards on Sunday is still indefinite.

Conerly, who played part of last Sunday's 20-3 victory over Green Bay with a sprained ankle, insisted he will be ready but Giant Coach Jim Lee Howell isn't that optimistic.

Gifford worked out but said the bruise on one of his ribs still hurt when he had to twist or run sharply. Schmecker, who pinched a nerve in his right hip, wasn't able to practice.

Pittsburgh — If a lot of players on the Pittsburgh Steelers football team don't improve in a hurry, they'll be looking elsewhere for work next season, says Coach Buddy Parker.

"I'm fed up with those who keep making the same mistakes over and over again and those who haven't been trying," said Parker Tuesday before a Steeler training session.

Parker blamed inept blocking, tackling, fumbling and so-so passing for his team's anemic 2 and 4 record this year.

'Tex' Techlin Jars 594 in Hahn's Merchants' Wheel

Mark Catlin, Jr., wrapped up game and series honors in Hahn's Industrial league Wednesday evening with tallies of 243 and 599 for Jimos Hats. Knoke's (22 - 5) leads the league by five games.

"Tex" Techlin walloped a 594 for Singer Sewing in Hahn's Merchants wheel. One of his singletons was a 226. Earl Schmidt pisted a 227 for first place Jahne's (21-6).

Dick Van Sistine's 577 for Rotary topped Hahn's Fraternal wheel. One of his games was a 225. Ted Freiberg blasted pins at a 236 rate for front-running UCT No. 2 (19-8).

Other Industrial honor counts: Don Boettcher, 578; Rudy Schultz, 565; Les Asmus, 559; Hank Williams, 235; Rodger Brandt, 562; John Plach, 556.

In the Merchants' circuit: Andy Delie, 556; Bob Snyder, 560; Art Stead, 555; Jim Green, 560; Wayne Bogan, 555. Fraternal tallies: Frank Peterson, 561; Lynn Schwede, 556.

Perez Retains Flyweight Title on TKO

Osaka, Japan — Pasqual Perez of Argentina retained his world flyweight boxing championship tonight with a thirteenth round technical knockout of challenger Sadao Yaoita of Japan.

The victory avenged the only defeat on Perez' record of 56 professional fights. Yaoita outpointed Perez in a non-title 10-rounder at Tokyo last January.

The end came at 55 seconds of the thirteenth with Yaoita staggering helplessly from a savage beating to head and body.

By The Associated Press

Put those Toronto Maple Leafs on home ice and they're a tough club to handle in the National Hockey league.

The Leafs ran their unbeaten streak at home to six games Wednesday night with a 4-1 victory over the New York Rangers. The game was only 13 seconds old when George Armstrong fired in Toronto's first goal.

1-Eyed Quarterback May Put Washington '11' in Rose Bowl

Seattle — The echo of a firecracker that exploded in 1946 may be heard this winter in the Rose bowl—if 1-eyed quarterback Bob Schloredt keeps the Washington Huskies rolling at their present pace.

Schloredt has perfect vision in his right eye. The sight of the left eye was all but destroyed when the firecracker shattered a bottle and a fragment of glass struck 6-year-old Bobby Schloredt.

Complete Player

He has grown into something of a firecracker himself. Washington has lost only one game — to Southern California — in seven starts this year and Schloredt lighted the fuse in all the victories but the first.

Bob Hivner was the starting quarterback when Washington opened a game against Colorado. Schloredt appeared mainly as a punter and his 50-yard kicks kept Washington from embarrassment. Before the game ended Hivner broke a finger and the one-eyed boy from

Steelers' Luna May Miss Game

The City council criticized previous drawings, showing the stadium surrounded by such commercial developments as restaurants and car washes.

Giardello Wins Close Decision

Crowd Boos Lustily As Decision Against Tiger Is Revealed

Cleveland, Ohio — It would seem that the only unanimous agreement on the outcome of a bout between middleweights Joey Giardello and Dick Tiger is reached by the three officials who scored the scrap.

The 29-year-old Giardello won a unanimous decision in Wednesday night's 10-rounder at the arena, and 2,782 paying customers booed lustily at the announcement.

Five weeks ago in Chicago Tiger won a unanimous decision in the pair's first 10-rounder, and that verdict also brought hoots.

Tiger Penalized

So close was the scoring that the referee, Don Gonzales, and a judge, Charles Bill, would have had it, 45-45, on points if Gonzales had not penalized Tiger a point for butting in the ninth round. Judge Herb Williams had it, 47-45, for Giardello.

Giardello built up on edge in points in the first three rather tame rounds, and then came a furious fourth with each fighter landing a number of solid blows. Both of Tiger's eyes were bleeding at the eye-brows when the round ended.

Joey admitted in his dressing room: "It was accidental, but my head did hit him."

Then Giardello displayed a bruise near his groin as evidence of a low punch.

Neither fighter scored a knockdown or near knockdown or was seriously hurt. Giardello hung on and grabbed a lot in the late rounds as the fight got rougher. Tiger barged Joey's jaw with jolting lefts and rights in the tenth to pile up the most lopsided edge for any single round.

Injuries are Helping to Create Wilkinson's Worst Season

BY JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Injuries, and probably the law of averages, have caught up to once-mighty Oklahoma. Now the Sooners must scramble to break even in Coach "Bud" Wilkinson's worst season.

Wilkinson saw his string of 74 consecutive Big Eight games without a loss snapped last Saturday in Nebraska's 25-21 victory to even the Sooners' 1959 record at 3-3.

National Titles

This is the most defeats a Wilkinson-coached club has endured in 12 years—his tenure as head coach, all at Oklahoma. In 1947, his first season, the Sooners had a 7-2-1 mark and 8-2 in 1952.

Every other year they lost only one or else finished unbeaten and untied. This latter happened in 1949-50-54-55 - 56, producing national champions in 1950-55-56.

But this year the roof has caved in. The tipoff came last spring when the 1959 Sooner varsity lost its annual spring game to the alumni, 27-20.

After fall practice began, Wilkinson sounded another keynote: "Our team, particularly in the line, lacks the experience of our opponents."

"Sour grapes," said some, but the injury - bug that plagued Oklahoma during fall practice took its toll. Wilkinson didn't have his No. 1 backfield intact until Sept. 14, and 306 lifetime batting average in 18 major league seasons bunched. Wednesday the entire Sooner squad was together for the first time in many weeks.

Purdue Top Defensive Club in Loop

Boilermakers Also Lead Big Ten in Rushing Yardage

Chicago — Purdue, sharing third place with Illinois in the Big Ten football title race, is making its mark in both offensive and defensive statistics.

Official conference figures showed today the Boilermakers have held opponents to the fewest number of points, a 7.3 average, and yards gained, 194, to lead in these major defensive departments.

Purdue also has become the top rushing team, averaging 196 yards a game to Ohio State's 192.5.

Defensive Marks

Other defensive marks include Northwestern's average yield of 7.5 points, Minnesota's yield of 126.8 yards rushing and a yield in passing of 50.3 for Ohio State and 50.8 for Illinois.

Iowa still is tops in yards gained with 335 to Michigan State's 289.8; in passing yardage with 154 to Northwestern's 136.5 and in yards per play with 4.80 to Northwestern's 4.60.

Individual pacesetters include: Rushing — Bob Jeter, Iowa, 305, and Mike Stock, Northwestern, 261; passing — Olen Treadway, Iowa, 56-95-585 and three touchdowns and Dean Look, MSU, 23-24-373 and four touchdowns.

Total offense — Treadway, 561, and John Henry Jackson, Indiana, 410.

'Dixie' Walker Signs As Braves Scout in Alabama and Georgia

Milwaukee — The Milwaukee Braves announced Monday the signing of Fred "Dixie" Walker, 49-year-old former major league star, as a scout in the Alabama-Georgia area.

Walker, manager for Toronto in the International league this year, compiled a .366 lifetime batting average in 18 major league seasons and won the National league crown with .357 while with the first time in many weeks.

Success Story

Broadway King Has 10 Hits in 11 Shows

BY HAL BOYLE

New York — If Broadway has a king today, he is David Merrick, a lawyer turned producer.

On this theatrical boulevard which is so often a highway to bankruptcy, Merrick has ridden to a fabulous financial success.

In the last five years 10 of his 11 plays have been hits, returning $7,000,000 in profit from a box office draw of more than $25,000,000.

Unmatched Record

With "Take Me Along," starring Jackie Gleason, Merrick has five shows on Broadway for the second year in a row. By the end of the season he hopes to have seven or eight running simultaneously, a record unmatched in the history of modern theater.

Stage-struck all his life, Merrick abandoned his legal career in 1946 in St. Louis after winning a big case. He began an intensive study of the theater, working at everything from press agency to play reading.

"I never wanted to be an actor," he recalled. "I would prefer to be a playwright, but I don't have the talent. So, being stage-struck, I put on the other fellow's plays."

"Clutterbuck" First

He started with "Clutterbuck" in 1950, began clicking in a big way with such musicals as "Fanny" and "Jamaica." His current productions include "La Plume de ma Tante," "Destry Rides Again," "The World of Suzie Wong," and "Gypsy."

Merrick has no personal explanation for his high batting average of hits in an industry where failure is the rule rather than the exception.

But Merrick is known for a showman's little rivaling that of the late Phineas T. Barnum. His promotion genius has enabled him to take shows that opened to mixed critical reviews and turn them into big hits.

"I've been able to show that critics are human and sometimes err," he remarked. "You can beat a bad critical reception. The one thing you can't beat at the box."

Movie Scenes to Be Retaken After Big Public Outcry

Cleveland, Tenn. — In a how to public opinion, 20th Century-Fox plans to retake depression scenes filmed at nearby Charleston.

The popular outcry was over what local critics called the "skid row" look of extras who portrayed unemployed in a breadline.

"There were plenty of us walked the streets in those days, unable to find work," said one resident. "Our clothes got pretty threadbare but we kept them clean. We didn't look like that."

Extras hired for the retake were told to dress "like the typical east Tennesseean of the depression days."

rice is a bad word-of-mouth reception."

Year-Round Staff

He plans each season as a general might plan a series of battles. He keeps a year-round talented staff that moves on from play to play in turn. And Merrick takes a direct interest in every detail of production.

He has started custom that endears him to stars, directors and playwrights — but annoys his fellow producers no end.

"The backer usually gets 50 per cent of the profits for putting up his money," he said, "and the other 50 per cent belongs to the producer — if he can keep it."

"I never have. I always split it with the creative artists involved in the production."

"You can't take it with you, so I believe in passing it along. Besides, I didn't come into the theater to make money. That's not my motive."

Blinder, City Settle Claim For Damages

Repair Work on Wall To Be Paid for From Oneida Bridge Bonds

The city council, board of public works and Louis Blinder agreed on a plan for repair of his building at Oneida and Lincoln streets which was damaged by S. Oneida street drawbridge construction.

It will cost the city $420 to repair and waterproof some 150 feet of wall at the southwest corner of the building. Director of Public Works Duszynski reported.

The works board ordered the work and costs charged to the S. Oneida street bridge bond issue.

Blinder at the last council meeting, Oct. 21, threatened court action if the city didn't repair wall damage before the freezing-thawing cycles of winter begin.

Other Action

Other works board action: Bids for razing buildings on the industrial park site were referred to Duszynski for tabulation. Lyle Lathrop, 510 E. McKinley street, was apparent low bidder among five submitted. He wants $650 to tear down buildings and burn the combustible materials. The site must be cleared because two industries have purchased the land building-free.

The board rejected a suggestion from the John M. Balliet Agency to lower insurance requirements on the razing project.

Wisconsin Michigan Power company was ordered paid $10,919 in damages for the power lines it had to move to make way for the new S. Oneida street drawbridge now under construction at the federal government canal.

Hold Actions

Action of Aldermen Schneider and Tews' suggestion to form a parking authority again was ordered held while Mayor Mitchell gathers more information on what other cities do.

Riverside Paper company's plea for permission to dump effluent into city sewers near Water and Oneida streets also was ordered held. Duszynski said he's awaiting information from the state.

Action was withheld on purchase of a school site on the far southeast side. Mayor Mitchell said the school board is due to meet with the school advisory committee of the council shortly and some new developments may come to light.

The board agrees to wait until the industrial development committee meets before it takes up offers of large acreages for addition to the industrial park site on S. Perkins street.

Actress Janet Gaynor, 53, star of silent films and early talkies, poses during a break in rehearsal of her Broadway stage debut, "The Midnight Sun." Miss Gaynor plays the part of a mother in the production. She was the winner of the first Academy award in 1928 for her acting in three movies, "Seventh Heaven," "Sunrise" and "Street Angel." Her present play had its pre-Broadway opening Wednesday night in New Haven, Conn.

Films for Children To Start Saturday At Viking Theater

is the first of a series of 10 movies to be shown at special children's matinees beginning Saturday at the Viking theater. The features will run from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Endorsed for children from kindergarten age through the eighth grade, the movies were chosen from the list rated A-1 by the National Legion of Decency and approved by the National Parent-Teacher association.

"Rocket Man," the story of a little boy and his toy rocket, will be shown Nov. 14; "Pony Soldier," based on the activities of the Northwest Mounted Police, is scheduled for Nov. 21, and the Nov. 28 movie is "Here Come the Nelsons," the story of TV's Ozzie and Harriet Nelson and their two sons as small boys.

Scheduled for the only showing in December is "Escapade in Japan," the adventure of two boys in this island land. This matinee will be shown Dec. 5.

The five movies in January include "Hansel and Gretel," Jan. 2; "Quentin Durward," depicting the days of King Arthur, Jan. 9; "Strategic Air Command" on the air force, Jan. 16; "Daniel Boone, Trailblazer," Jan. 23; and "Walk the Proud Land," a tale of our great western heritage, Jan. 30.

Insurer to Get Damage Claim Against City

Irene Parsons' claim for damages to her property by a city contractor will be referred to the city's insurance carrier, the city council decided Wednesday.

The woman on June 17 complained that a sewer contractor destroyed a strawberry bed on 10 acres she owns at Lawe street and Wilson avenue. She said she was billing the city $100.

The matter originally was referred to the insurance carrier of Brennan-Rolland Excavators, Inc., the contractor involved, but a question of city liability also was raised.

The contractor and the city did trespass on her property and did do damage. Director of Public Works Duszynski told the board of public works.

City Atty. Jury said the 90-day period for action has lapsed, causing legal denial of the claim, but the board said it would refer the claim to the city's insurance carrier at the time the damage occurred.

Symphony Orchestra To Perform at Oshkosh

The University of Wisconsin Symphony orchestra will present a concert at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Grand theater in Oshkosh.

The concert is being sponsored by the Oshkosh Parents School Music association.

Singer Patti Page Loses Pet Terrier

Hollywood — A few years back, singer Patti Page made a big record calling "How Much is That Doggie in the Window?"

Well, she got her dog, all right. But now the little rascal has gone out the window, so to speak.

Miss Page reported Friday that her terrier — named "Window" after the hit song — is missing. She said it vanished from her home in the Sunset Strip district.

Boards Agree To Sell Land To Fox Tractor

Price Negotiation Awaits Survey Due At Nov. 24 Meeting

The board of public works and park board are agreeable to selling about one acre of city property to Fox River Tractor company.

The land is adjacent on the east to the company's plant at 1020 N. Rankin street.

It would be used to store finished tractors and other company equipment, R. A. Saiberlich, of the company, told representatives of the works and park boards Tuesday.

It is doubtful, he said, that the company would build on the property because current plans call for expansion northward from present buildings toward N. Rankin street.

People Oppose

Ald. Douglas Ogilvie told the boards that people whose property abuts the east line of the city tract are opposed.

Saiberlich said the company would be agreeable to erecting a 7-foot-high fence with shielding shrubs and trees between the fence and the protesting property owners.

The company also would agree to furnish easements for already existing city sewer pipes which cross the property, Saiberlich said.

Work of Reconstructing the dangerous crumbling S. Lawe street wall is underway. C. R. Meyer and Son, Oshkosh, holds the $26,000 city contract. Upper Lawe street here is shown already removed. The new slope of the hill will start at the east curb line of what was Upper Lawe street, permitting a more gentle hillside of grass. The footbridge in the background will be extended on the east side and strengthened throughout.

Removal of Unwanted Hair Usually Cosmetic Problem

By Joseph G. Molner, M.D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: I would like your advice on electrolysis for removal of excess hair. Does it have any harmful effects? Can it cause cancer? Will it leave a permanent mark on the skin? — E. W."

Sometimes it seems as though the only question con-

moner than "How do I prevent falling hair?" is "how do I get rid of hair?"

Those of you who have read this column for some time already know my suggestion on getting rid of excess hair — and I have found no reason to change my beliefs.

This is a cosmetic problem, not a medical one in most cases. There are instances, of course, in which excessive quantities of male hormones cause a heavy hair growth, but these are exceptional cases. Anyway, there are other manifestations, such as changes in the voice and so on. These serious cases are only too readily apparent, and require special treatment.

Often Hereditary For most readers who worry about unwanted hair, the cause is hereditary. There isn't anything wrong with the body's activity. The problem is purely one of appearance or what the person believes to be a matter of appearance. The fact is, and I've said this before, some people are inclined to notice a slight darkening or thickening of hair, and think it is an overwhelming blemish. Their friends hardly notice it.

So, for practical purposes, one excellent answer is bleaching. Light-colored hair is more difficult to see. Shaving Practical

On the legs, for example, either chemical preparations for removing hair, or shaving is entirely practical. I still hear the plaint, "but doesn't shaving make the hair heavier?" The answer is absolutely no. The thickness of the hair is determined at its root or follicle, and cutting it farther up, either with scissors or razor, has no effect.

Incidentally, in the days when men grew bushy black beards instead of shaving, the beards were just as heavy and wiry! Shaving doesn't make whiskers heavy.

And then the final solution is electrolysis, or treating the hair follicle with an electric needle. It is the one method which offers any permanent results — and this within limits.

Does Not Cause Cancer Definitely this treatment does not cause cancer. For other reasons, it must be done by skilled people — most electrolysis is done by women trained for this work.

Even when properly performed it is expensive and it can be painful. It is always a slow process as each hair must be destroyed individually. No matter how carefully the work is done, there is a chance of pit-like scars. Further, a certain percentage of the treated hairs may grow back, and have to be treated again, although of course when the follicle is thoroughly destroyed, it can't grow back. But it is difficult to be sure the first time.

I've given the bad points as well as the good ones. Electrolysis is an accepted method of removing hair. Ask your doctor to refer you to a trained electrologist if that is the treatment decided upon.

Are you a victim of "vitamin starvation?" To make sure that your diet always contains proper food, write to me in care of this newspaper for my pamphlet, "Vitamins — Alphabet Of Health," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 5 cents in coin to cover handling.
